18 U.S. Skaters Among 73 Sabena Victims W. Europe Fears Korea-Like War in Africa

Reds Vow Help for Congolese

U. N. Seen Losing Civil War Block

LONDON (AP)—Western alarm mounted today as Communist support for Patrice Lumumba's political heirs in the Congo raised the fearful specter of a Korea-like war in the heart of Africa.

Banner newspapers headlines across Western Europe showed the concern at the Soviet Union's offer of "all possible assistance and support" to the Lumumbist government of Antoine Gizenga, controlling a large part of the northern Congo from headquarters in Stanleyville.

Fears Are Expressed

Fears were openly expressed that the U.N. attempt to prevent civil war in the Congo would collapse, that the Soviet Union and its Communist allies would supply Gizenga's forces, and that the United States and its allies would have to bulwark the Leopoldville government of President Joseph Kasavubu or see the vast territory go to the Communists by default.

President Nasser's United Arab Republic Tuesday night officially recognized Gizenga's regime as the legal government of the Congo. Red China quickly lined up.

Premier Chou En-lai cabled Gizenga: "The Chinese people are deeply convinced that the Congolese people will surely turn their grief into strength and, under the leadership of your excellency and the lawful Congolese government, will fight to the end against the imperialist bloc headed by the United States of America and in defense of the national independence of the Congo."

Nkrumah Lashes U. N.

Ghana's President Kwame Nkrumah, always a supporter of Lumumba, lashed the United Nations for the role it played in the Congo and added: "The danger in the Congo is not so much the possibility of a civil war between Africans, but rather a colonialist war in which the colonial and imperialist powers hide behind African puppet regimes."

U.S. officials were reported counting heavily on dozens of the smaller nations—particularly in Africa—to rally to the defense of the United Nations. This hope was bolstered by India's ambassador to Washington, M. C. Chagla, who said his government favors strengthening the United Nations because "it is only as the United Nations is effective that we will prevent civil war."

Tunisia Scores Soviet

Tunisia's government radio attacked the Soviet action in the new Congo crisis, calling it "dangerous" and "risking creation of a new Korea."

Observers in Cairo predicted heavy pressure on Sudanese Premier Ibrahim Abboud to allow planes carrying arms and other supplies from the Communists and the U.A.R. to Stanleyville to make the necessary refueling stop in the Sudan.

Many observers in Cairo believe the Soviet Union is geared for a big arms supply program to Stanleyville. (Continued on Page 10, Col. 1)

Adlai Rips Soviet for Move Aimed at Ruin of Assembly

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Wild disorders broke out in the public gallery of the U.N. Security Council today as U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson blasted the Soviet Union for allegedly trying to wreck the United Nations.

It was the worst demonstration in the history of the U.N. Council President Sir Patrick Dean of Britain recessed the meeting while guards cleared the gallery.

About ten Negro men, wearing hats and overcoats, burst through the back door of the public gallery. They rushed down the aisles shouting "Vive Lumumba."

The U.S. delegate urged the U.N. Security Council to rally its strength to turn back what he called efforts to destroy the U.N. operations in the Congo.

Stevenson addressed the council in a crisis atmosphere brought to

Javits Leaning Toward Rocky as 1964 GOP Leader

UTICA, N.Y. (AP)—Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., appears to lean more toward Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York as a leader of the Republican Party in 1964 than toward former Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

Javits mentioned both Tuesday night as among the top contenders.

He endorsed neither. But he described Rockefeller at a Lincoln Day dinner as distinguished and able.

He said that, for national success, the party needs a majority of those with a "liberal outlook," a term Rockefeller does not dispute when applied to him.

Backs Rocky's Method

Javits, who supported Rockefeller for the 1960 GOP presidential nomination until Rockefeller withdrew, said:

"Republicans like myself believe in federal anti-bias laws. (Continued on Page 10, Col. 8)

Warning Given on Big Taxes

Legislature Told To Cut Spending

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Cut spending or risk bringing on higher taxes, the Legislature was told today as public hearings opened on Gov. Rockefeller's record $2.4-billion budget.

The Citizens Public Expenditure Survey, a taxpayer organization, said in a statement prepared for the first hearing:

"If this budget is adopted, the inevitable result will be another round of tax rises in the near future."

Note Rising Costs

The taxpayer group, among 75 scheduled to be heard, said the Rockefeller budget for the fiscal year beginning April 1 contained new programs that carried relatively minor appropriations for the first year but involved increasing costs in future years.

The Republican governor's controversial plan for state grants to students at private colleges, estimated at $6.6 million in 1961-62, would cost "more than $20 million a year when in full swing," the organization said in a prepared statement.

Fiscal committees of the GOP-controlled Legislature are conducting the hearings on the governor's budget, which calls for spending of nearly $300 million over present costs of state government.

Usually Have No Effect

The annual budget hearings usually are long, heated and crowded but have little apparent effect on the budget.

While minor changes may be made by the Legislature, the budget finally adopted each year essentially is that proposed by the governor.

The fiscal program submitted to the Legislature has been prepared over several months by the governor's office and the budget division.

The budget called for no new taxes. In fact, the Legislature has repealed a $9.2-million annual tax on cigars, pipe tobacco and some other tobacco products, excluding cigarettes. The governor signed the repeal measure Tuesday. He pointed out the tax, first set in 1959, had put tobacco dealers at a competitive disadvantage.

Today's hearing dealt with approximately half of the budget—the $728 million proposed for operating state government and the $345 million for highways and other construction.

The other half, more than $1.26 billion for state aid to localities, will be the subject of a second hearing Friday.

Linked to Education

A majority of the organizations represented today were connected with education. Such groups frequently dominate budget hearings. Most call for additional state

Kennedy Eyes Lagging Economy

Spending Speedup May Be Announced Tonight

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy is reported planning to announce tonight a speedup in spending of some federal funds in a fresh effort to spur the lagging economy and reduce unemployment.

Informed officials said they understood the President intends to make such an announcement at his news conference scheduled for 7 p.m. EST. The conference will be broadcast live on nationwide television and radio.

Faces Cargo Questions

On the international front, Kennedy faces questioning about his views on the crises in the Congo and in the United Nations resulting from the assassination of deposed Congo Premier Patrice Lumumba. He's hinting the tension are Soviet demands that the matter be dealt with on Soviet terms.

The domestic antirecession measures Kennedy is said to have decided upon would not require action by Congress.

There was no immediate word regarding details, but the Kennedy plans are reported to call for issuing new administrative orders to a few federal agencies for spending money faster than planned on some government programs.

Massive Scale Unlikely

Indications are that such speedier spending would not be on any massive scale. The idea is to pump some additional money into the economy, pending congressional consideration of the Kennedy legislative program, aimed at business recovery, easing of unemployment hardship and reduction of joblessness.

54 of Dead Americans; Flight Was From N.Y.

By FRED CHEVAL

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP)—Fifty-four Americans, including the entire U.S. figure skating team perished today in the flaming crash of a Sabena Belgian Airlines jet. In all, the crash of the American-built Boeing 707 brought death to 73 persons.

Disaster struck at 10:05 a.m. as the $5-million plane, its engines suddenly sounding odd, sought a landing in bright sunshine after a flight from New York.

The huge plane slammed to earth beside a woods three miles north of Brussels International Airport and went up in flames fed by fuel oil as the tanks exploded one by one.

Farmer Killed

All 61 passengers and the crew of 11 died. A Belgian farmer tilling his cabbage patch was struck and killed.

Mrs. Maribel Vinson Owen, 49, of Winchester, Mass., nine times the U.S. figure skating champion, was killed along with two daughters who were members of the current team. The girls were Laurence Owen, 16, and Maribel Owen, 20. Mrs. Owen last weekend had seen Laurence win the North American championships at Philadelphia.

Mrs. Owen and Coach Deane McMinn of Lomita, Calif., were accompanying the 18-member U.S. team to world figure skating championships in Prague, Czechoslovakia.

The team is the fifth major sports group wiped out by plane crashes in a dozen years, including soccer teams of Italy, Britain and Denmark. Sixteen members team were killed in the crash of the California Poly football team were killed in the crash of a chartered plane last Oct. 29 at Toledo, Ohio.

No Survivors

The Boeing crashed in a small pond and started burning almost at once. Fire engines previously alerted because of its erratic behavior screamed toward the scene, but arrived only in time to check the spread of fire.

"There were no survivors," a fire officer said.

Charred bodies were removed to a temporary morgue at the airport. A Belgian farm laborer lost a leg and was hospitalized.

In addition to the two Owen girls, the members of the U.S. skating team were Steffi Westerfield, Gregory Kelley and Bill and Laurie Hickox, all of Colorado Springs, Colo.; Bradley Lord and Dudley Richards of Boston; Donna Lee Carrier, Diane Sherbloom and Roger Campbell of Los Angeles; Rhodie Michelson, Long Beach, Calif.; Douglas Ramsay, Detroit; Ray and Ila Rae Hadley, Seattle; Larry Pierce, Indianapolis; and Bob and Pat Dineen, New York.

Debris from the terribly twisted Boeing was scattered for several hundred yards.

The nightmare evolved from Sabena's Flight 548 from New York City piloted by Cmdr. Louis Lambrechts.

Erratic Pattern

Residents of the seacoast village of Berg figured something might be wrong when the airliner sped over them for its approach to the airport. The engine roar changed oddly and the flight pattern looked erratic.

The plane circled the field a time or two. It lowered the undercarriage, retracted it, turned again and fell.

"Suddenly the plane fell in a series of spins," an airport official said. (Continued on Page 6, Col. 3)

Firemen Planning Vital Action in High Falls Fete

Support of the High Falls Fire Company, Inc., in a drive aimed at improving the community, which has a tricentennial observance due in a few years, was emphasized in a Tuesday night meeting of the company.

The firemen said they will cooperate with the High Falls Civic Association in working for modernization, beautification and industrialization of High Falls, which was settled in 1669. The program, as planned, is due to be completed by 1969, the tricentennial year, when a phase of the celebration will be reminiscent of the D & H Canal days.

Bond Vote Due Feb. 21

Edmund "Tiny" Ruffner, prominent radio personality, and now a local justice of the peace, was prospect speaker. John L. Smith, fire company president, conducted the largely attended meeting. Ruffner said plans for the program ahead are "on the drawing board."

Plans to modernize the local fire fighting equipment to bring it up to a par with the best in the county has been approved by the Board of Fire Commissioners of the Fire District and a vote to approve a $20,000 bond issue will be held on Tuesday, February 21, from 7 to 10 p.m. at the local firehall. Voters of the fire district are eligible to vote.

It was emphasized that to modernize the department will add very little to the tax burden.

Figure Quoted

An individual with a present fire tax of $3.29 need only add 80 cents a year as his share for the protection which might be the necessary difference to save a life.

All voters are urged to get out next Tuesday and cast their vote. Transportation will be available by calling any officer of the fire company.

To Build Kitchen, Stand

Plans under way and slated for completion by early spring to build a new modern kitchen were discussed and received with enthusiasm, especially by the ladies auxiliary group. Ruffner pointed out that the kitchen will be a modern, up-to-date setup that will cater to many affairs and dinners throughout the year.

An out-door barbecue refreshment stand is planned to serve the populace at carnival time. The improvement will come at no cost to the taxpayers since all of the monies come from funds raised through projects

D. F. Wells Dies Ex-KHS Teacher; Funeral Thursday

DeWitt Frederick Wells, 59, of 7 Orchard Street, Hurley, a former member of the faculty of Kingston High School and Myron J. Michael School, died Monday at Our Lady of Lourdes Hospital in Binghamton after an illness of several months.

Mr. Wells was a member of the KHS and MJM faculty until his retirement in 1959.

Funeral Is Thursday

Surviving are his wife, Katherine Payne Wells; two sons, Rodney E. of Claverack and Gerald D. Wells of Schenectady; a daughter, Jean Louise of Ann Arbor, Mich., and a grandson, Gerald Andrew.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at 2 p.m. at the Miller Funeral Home in Candor. Burial arrangements have not been announced.

The former local educator was born in Binghamton Dec. 29, 1902, the son of the late Frederick E. and Ida Gulden Wells.

He was graduated from Binghamton High School and Syracuse University and later was principal of La Fargeville High School. (Continued on Page 10, Col. 8)

Rockefeller Extends Life Of 'Little Hoover' Group

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—Gov. Rockefeller signed today a bill extending the life of the "Little Hoover Commission," which is investigating the cost of public welfare in New York State.

The measure, which extends the commission's life to March 31, 1962, was introduced by Sen. Austin W. Erwin, R-Genesee, who heads the unit, known formally as the Temporary State Commission on Coordination of State Activities.

The commission is charged with studying whether the activities of state agencies are essential and performed efficiently.

Among other bills signed was a measure increasing from $4,500 to $5,000 the annual salary of the Fulton County surrogate and from $5,000 to $5,500 that of the Fulton County judge.

Meanwhile, two Nassau County Republicans introduced bills in the Legislature to enable motorists in the assigned-risk plan to buy additional automobile insurance.

The assigned-risk plan was set up to provide insurance for persons normally turned down by insurance companies when the state instituted its compulsory automobile-insurance program.

Its present coverage limits are $10,000-$20,000 for personal injury and $5,000 for property damage.

Under the measure submitted by Sen. Edward J. Speno and Assemblyman Anthony Barbiero, the maximum coverage would be raised to $25,000-$50,000 for personal injury, and $5,000 for property damage and $1,000 for medical expenses. Family coverage would be available.

New Rates Begin Today for Two Phone Concerns

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—A $24,100 annual rate increase for the Ausable Valley Telephone Co. and a $3,000 increase for the Pattersonville Telephone Co. take effect today under a Public Service Commission ruling.

The Ausable Valley company, of Keeseville, increased rates on residential party lines by 75 cents a month and private lines by $1 a month. The monthly increases for business phones are from 75 cents for rural and five-party lines and to $2.25 for private lines.

The company serves 2,500 customers in parts of Essex, Clinton and Franklin counties.

The PSC said Tuesday the company had estimated revenues over the next 12 months that would drop $55,000 from the last 12 months. The commission did not list the total income from last year.

The Pattersonville company serves 700 customers in Pattersonville, Rotterdam Junction, Lower Rotterdam and Hoffmans, Schenectady County. Residential rates were raised by five cents to 90 cents a month and business rates by 25 cents to $3 a month.

The company said it would lose $1,500 a year by its recent elimination of tolls between its stations and Amsterdam. Rate increases will bring in $4,500 a year, for a net gain of $3,000, the company said.

Theft Reported Of Radiological Survey Machine

VICTOR, N.Y. (AP)—The theft of a radiological survey machine, containing a pea-sized radio-active core, is believed to be the work of vandals, State Police say.

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—The new accent on youth may soon extend from the White House right into the machinery in our factories. President Kennedy says too much of our industrial equipment is too old. He wants business to speed up the modernization of its plant. He says the government will help.

"The average age of equipment in American factories today is about nine years," the President says. "In a dynamic economy that average should be falling, as new equipment is put into place. Instead, the available evidence suggests that it has been slowly rising."

Renews Tax Pledge

He has renewed his pledge of quickly seeking tax reform to help business update its plants.

The President has still to spell out exactly what tax changes. But business interprets them to be largely in the field of depreciation allowances. Many business spokesmen have deplored present tax policy as holding back building of new plants and buying the latest equipment. This keeps operating costs higher here and helps make

American prices higher than those of foreign manufacturers.

President Kennedy agrees that we have fallen behind in the competitive race. He notes that other nations have been lowering the average age of their plants and machinery. He names as an example West Germany, where at least two-fifths of the plant and equipment is under five years of age.

Other lands allow faster write-off of new investment in tax accounting. Some allow revaluation of assets in recognition of higher replacement costs. This lowers corporate tax payments and gives companies more funds with which to buy new equipment.

The United States has granted fast write-offs for some plants and equipment held essential for national defense. But in the main its policies still hold to a standard which, though varied, averages around 20 years. That is, the life of much machinery is held to be 20 years. Companies spread depreciation allowances over 20 years.

Say Modernization Barred

They complain that they can't replace the old plant and tools for anything like what they cost—that is, for anything like the total of their depreciation allowances.

To buy new equipment they must find money somewhere—by raising prices to boost profits, by borrowing.

Many insist that this is keeping them from modernizing their plants. This has cut the totals spent on capital goods in the last year, and that has been a factor in the turnaround in general business activity.

There are two tax reforms the President could propose. One would speed up the time in which a new machine could be depreciated for tax purposes—five years, say instead of 20. This would give companies temporary relief. After the five years the machine would be fully taxable as an asset and its production taxable as income without benefit of allowances. But there would be an incentive to buy still newer equipment.

The other would be to let companies value their present machinery at replacement cost instead of its much lower cost at time of purchase. This would grant a longer-range relief.

Primary Vote Is Set for Sept. 5

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—Gov. Rockefeller and Republican leaders decided today that this year's primary election will be held on Sept. 5, a participant in a closed-door strategy meeting reported.

There had been a conflict within Republican ranks over whether to hold a June primary and extend the New York City mayoral election campaign, or a September primary, which was favored by Upstate leaders.

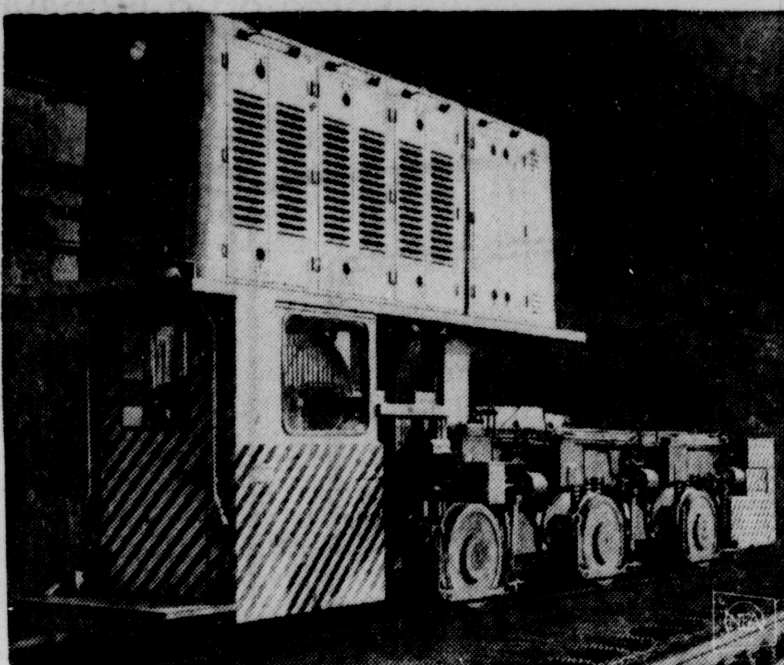

Adherents of an early primary originally held that nomination of a GOP candidate for mayor of New York City would help the party by providing more time for campaigning against the incumbent Democratic administration of Mayor Robert F. Wagner.

Upstate Republicans held that a June primary would mean a long and expensive campaign.

One reason for the leaders' selection of the September date reportedly was current squabbling between Democratic factions in New York City.

Wagner is at odds with other party leaders and might face a primary fight.

If the primary is put off to September, Republicans reportedly feel, the Democratic fighting will continue and perhaps intensify and there will be less time for closing ranks between the primary and the election.

The written examination is being prepared and rated by the New York State Department of Civil Service. Applications and further information may be obtained at the office of Thomas Bohan, executive secretary of Ulster County Civil Service commission, 32 Main Street. The salary range is $2,640 to $3,240.

Khrushchev, Not Always Like Stalin, Seen Holding Coexistence Trump Card

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—It's no wonder President Kennedy is giving so much time and thought to dealing with Premier Khrushchev. The chubby Russian may be the last train home.

There will be nothing to look forward to except intensified and more dangerous cold war if this country and Russia don't find some common and amicable ground upon which to do business.

May Be Repudiated

Khrushchev won't be around indefinitely. Unless in his lifetime some peaceful settlements are reached, the Communist world, particularly the Red Chinese, can consider his peaceful coexistence policy repudiated.

The logical alternative to that is a return to the aggressions of Stalin.

Khrushchev may be repudiated by his own followers even in his own lifetime unless his pursuit of peaceful coexistence can be realized in some demonstrable way. His Chinese allies think he is wrong and have said so.

In a way Khrushchev has been a political freak. The only kind of communism the world knew until Stalin died in 1953 was Stalin's kind—cold, more or less inarticulate, and unimaginative.

It was unimaginative in a very real sense. Stalin relied on the primitive use of force. He ignored the more modern weapons of propaganda, visits abroad, and foreign aid to influence other peoples.

Khrushchev not only denounced Stalin but made the complete switch by drawing a peaceful picture of Russia while using all the modern public relations methods available, the ones Stalin didn't try.

To Explore All Signs

What Stalin and Khrushchev retained in common, as Kennedy pointed out in his State of the Union message, was a determination to make communism prevail.

One basic difference remained. It was impossible to reach peaceful solutions with Stalin; it might be possible with Khrushchev. Kennedy has made it clear he will ignore no effort toward doing so.

Khrushchev sits and waits until Kennedy makes up his mind on what he'll do and how.

But just because Khrushchev may be the last chance in a generation for some peaceful solutions, Kennedy almost certainly will be glad to talk with him if the Russian comes to this country in April for a United Nations meeting.

Kennedy hasn't even indicated yet that he will. At the moment his policy is to say practically nothing about Khrushchev or Russia. But he has said "each day the crises multiply."

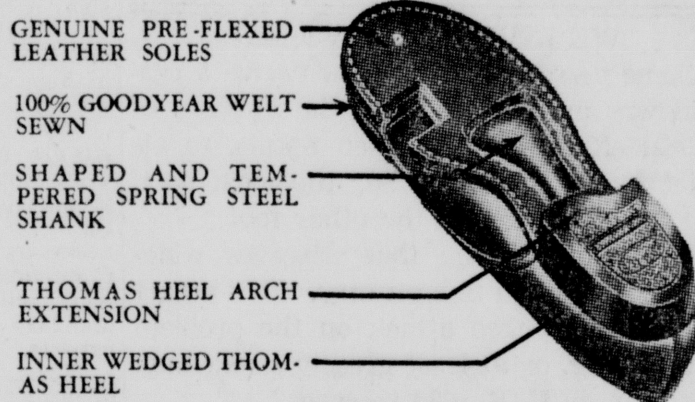

Since he spoke they've become worse. For example: the killing of Patrice Lumumba in the Congo. One of Kennedy's most critical problems is one which may lie beyond his control. While he ponders the course to take in seeking settlements with Khrushchev, the possibility of settlements may be made even more remote by explosions, like the Congo, in areas far distant from both Russia and the United States.

WE INVITE THE WORLD

Some persons abroad must derive a certain wry amusement from the upsurge of official effort, in the United States, to attract foreign visitors. For the most part, the shoe has been on the other foot.

The effort is one that deserves widespread support in this country. It is a part of a multi-pronged attack on the problem of reversing, or at least greatly slackening, the drain on U. S. gold reserves.

American tourists spend large amounts of dollars abroad. Most of the dollars go for goods and services consumed abroad, and the administration seems to have no present intention of doing anything about that. Congress has been asked, however, to cut from $500 to $100 the limit on the value of foreign goods which returning travelers can bring back without paying customs duties.

The same motivation has prompted a request for authority to establish an office of international travel in the Department of Commerce. The administration is asking five million dollars annually for a program to attract travelers.

This would be a sensible move. The amount of money spent in the United States by visitors can scarcely reverse the gold outflow, but it will have a good effect. Perhaps even more important is the expectation that more foreign travel in the United States would increase worldwide understanding of this country.

In that connection, it will be important for Congress to reduce the red tape which now discourages prospective visitors to the United States. If we want more travelers to see the U. S. sights—and, incidentally, to spend their money in this country—we will have to present a more hospitable front to them.

A RACE TO ACHIEVE

Recent events have once again underscored the foolishness of regarding space developments wholly in terms of a race with the Soviet Union. Those who do so find themselves alternately plunged into despair or buoyed up on the wings of overconfidence. Neither state has thus far been justified.

Recently the United States had a memorable week in the field of missiles and satellites. Within a brief period a prototype of a manned space vehicle bearing a live chimpanzee was launched and recovered, a Samos spy satellite was put into orbit, and a Minuteman ICBM rocket made an almost perfect flight. Some commentators, going well beyond the very real satisfaction warranted by these successes, gloatingly suggested that this meant we had now forged ahead of the Russians.

Perhaps so. But then the Russians launched a huge, seven-ton sputnik within a few days was one to conclude that the Russians were now ahead of us?

Neither conclusion springs logically from what has transpired. There is a race on for supremacy in the field of space technology; make no mistake about that. But this race is not won, and it is not lost, merely on the strength of week to week developments. The chimpanzee launch and recovery, the Samos, the Minuteman were all notable achievements, and so was the big Soviet satellite, but neither the United States nor the Soviet Union gained ascendancy by virtue of those achievements.

In the space race it is the long, hard pull that counts. Momentary ups and downs with relation to the Soviet Union are of relatively little importance. Solid achievement, and not a temporary edge on Russia, is the goal of this race.

OUR LIQUID POPULATION

The United States is truly on the move. During the 50s the almost unbelievable proportion of about one out of five families moved each year. California and Florida have been swamped by new residents. On the other hand, 28 states and the District of Columbia lost population. This is a strange new period in history for the United States.

'These Days'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY

CASTRO AND TRUJILLO

It is possible to develop prejudices about anybody or anything. Frankly, 44 years of personal, active experience with Communist movements have convinced me that I do not like their type of society. The Communist program, since the London Conference in 1903, has been the conquest of the world for Marxism.

In this country there are many who are not Marxists but who have no bias on the subject. Their attitude might be summed up in the phrase that an idea is an idea; that the test of the usefulness of an idea is whether it works out empirically; that Communism seems to be successful in some countries. They themselves do not prefer it.

This is a pragmatic point of view which is more generally held than one assumes. To such, the judgment on Castro is unrelated to his Communist affiliation; it is whether he is good for Cuba or not. Some do not even ask whether his movement is harmful or beneficial to the United States because their criterion of virtue does not include benefits to their own country. Their yardstick is limited to a doctrinaire antipathy to imperialism and a repugnance to capitalism.

Their intellectual and spiritual dishonesty is that they continue to pose as patriotic capitalists when, as a matter of fact, they have become so completely absorbed by the uprisings throughout the world that any weak and backward people is ipso facto preferable to a strong and progressive nation. It was this unwholesome attitude toward the underdog which destroyed the British and Dutch Empires, brought civil war to France in Algeria and disrupted the Congo. But its greatest sin has been its strengthening of Soviet Russia. Many who have been violently anti-imperialist are not Communists. They reject the label. They would go to war for the United States and give their lives. Unfortunately, they do not have the time or the patience to do the homework necessary to study the strategy and tactics of Communism as developed by Lenin, Stalin and Khrushchev and their associates. This takes work and lazy men accept the dicta of self-proclaimed experts.

Thus, Castro has built for himself something of a defensive following in the United States. Their latest slogan is that while they disapprove of his methods, they feel that his purposes are right and that ultimately he will raise the living standards of the Cuban people, provide better schools, health, etc.

Such Americans, however, are opposed to Trujillo who calls himself the Benefactor of the Dominican Republic and who is unquestionably a dictator. Trujillo has provided clean water, clean streets, better living standards but he runs the country as he chooses and puts down opposition with an iron hand. Trujillo is even accused of having arranged for assassination of other Latin American officials.

Americans generally do not like Castro or Trujillo. The latter made a frightful error in public relations by attempting to purchase journalistic and other favorable opinion. It became impossible to speak even with mild praise of Trujillo's clean water without being suspect of having accepted his schilling. So he has no one to say that taken all in all, one dictator is no better than another and that if we are opposed to dictators and favor elections and government by choice, that could be a point of view universally applied.

In Latin America, as in other parts of the world, no one has yet been able to distinguish between a good dictator and a bad one. President Roosevelt pretended that he knew the difference when he preferred Joe Stalin to Adolf Hitler, but history will not join him in the distinction, for even Khrushchev disclosed what a very foul egg Stalin was. When a man seizes power and rules by his own might whether one calls him Genghis Khan, Charles Martel, Napoleon, Hitler, Castro or Trujillo, he is violently antagonistic to our way of life and if we have a political philosophy at all, we should oppose him with all we have.

Those who have no philosophy of politics often can distinguish subjectively between a good guy and a bad guy and their ideas usually lead them to the ash can of dead notions because they will not study the forces that make for progressive civilization and the counter-forces that drive men back to the jungle whence they emerged to see the sun of human liberty.

Easter Seal Drive Affords

You Chance to 'Feed Three'

By HAROLD T. HYMAN, M.D.

Written for

Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

On several occasions, I've commented on the remarkable quality of the letters I receive from readers. But, at this moment of writing, "my cup runneth over."

Some time ago, I asked for help in locating the quotation "He, who giveth, giveth thrice." I was sure it was biblical but neither my clergymen friends nor my good wife could find it, though we searched through all standard books of reference. And I wanted very much to trace its source for the particular purpose of suggesting its message to the army of self-centered neurotics.

Well, from all over the continent I've gotten the information I sought. And more. "The quotation to which you referred," writes an Oklahoman, "is from James Russell's 'Vision of Sir Launfal' wherein Christ is depicted as saying:

"Not what we give, but what we share,
For the gift without the giver is bare;
Who gives himself with his alms feeds three,
Himself, his hungry neighbor, and me."

"I learned many, verses of this lovely poem over 50 years ago," says a Californian, "and can still quote them. Especially at the Christmas season. I think of them many times."

Well it's sort of late to bring these inspiring verses as a Christmas thought to the "First Person Singular." But how about applying its lesson when you receive the Easter Seal appeal of the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc.? This nonprofit organization has branches in every state, headquarters at 2023 West Ogden Ave., Chicago 12, Ill.

In its 235 treatment centers, 13 rehabilitation centers, 5 residential centers for in-patients, 27 sheltered workshops, 45 mobile units, 87 summer camps, 232 loan pools, 51 resident camps, 83 day camps and its other facilities, it treated 236,401 patients, most of them children, in the last year.

Its projects include research into, and practical treatment of, bone diseases and malformations, cerebral palsy, arthritis, childhood asplasia, speech disorders, multiple sclerosis and muscular dystrophies.

When you place the Easter Seal on your envelopes, the recipient of your letter will know you've helped more than three. For, beyond the trio of beneficiaries of the poem, there'll be the grateful parents of the handicapped youngster.

For a copy of Dr. Hyman's leaflet "How to Choose Your Family Doctor," send 10 cents to Dr. Hyman care of the Kingston Daily Freeman, Box 489, Dept. B, Radio City Station, New York 19, N. Y.

In view of the fact that these migrations cause giant headaches for both the areas which gain and the areas which lose, it is something which we will have difficulty in getting used to.

Three on a Honeymoon

Washington News

BY PETER EDSON
Washington Correspondent
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

WASHINGTON — (NEA) —

This guy—(No, that's a disrespectful way to begin. Start again.)—This President John Fitzgerald Kennedy, 43 (D-Mass.) has a nice sense of humor. Which is why you may think of him often as just a nice guy.

The President's sense of humor is not like Gov. Adlai Stevenson's, which provokes belly laughs and which makes many think he's always clowning, and too much of a funny man.

There's nothing more fatal for a politician than to have a hyperdeveloped sense of humor. A vast majority of the voters seem to want to take their leaders seriously.

A politician can tell an allegedly "funny story" and get away with it, if it is broad humor of a slapstick variety. But if it's too subtle, too cynical or ironical or sophisticated, the crowd won't get it and this can defeat a man.

PRESIDENT KENNEDY'S HUMOR is of the quiet type. He often plays it deadpan, or with a sly smile and a twinkle in his eye. It is a quick wit that invokes chuckles, not loud guffaws.

Already there is a good collection of Kennedy cracks on record, and the file is going to grow. So far, it hasn't gotten him into any trouble and you can hope it never does. Here are a few of his rib ticklers to try on your own funny bone:

When criticism was at its height over the appointment of brother Bobby as youngest attorney general in U. S. history, the President cracked before the Alfalfa Club in Washington: "I don't see anything wrong with giving Bobby a little legal experience before he starts practicing law."

The President's humor relies heavily on under statement. At his first news conference, he was asked about the battle over enlargement of the House Rules Committee.

"The responsibility rests with the members of the House," said the President at the conclusion of his statement. "I would not attempt in any way to infringe upon that responsibility. I will give my view as an interested citizen."

WHEN HE APPEARED before the National Press Club a little over a year ago, the steel strike had just been settled, and there was a wild rumor going around that the Hon. Joseph P. Kennedy, the President's father, had a hand in it, which was ardent nonsense. The then-Senator Kennedy observed somewhat shyly in his opening remarks:

"I'm sorry my father couldn't be here, too—but he's out in Chicago settling the rail strike."

In the Kennedy-Johnson confrontation debate at the Democratic convention in Los Angeles, before the nominations, the Texas senator made a great point about how he had answered 60 quorum calls and 45 roll calls in the special session of Congress last August, while "some senators" who were out campaigning, missed 34 of 45 roll calls. He mentioned no names.

When it came Kennedy's turn to answer, he arose and with a wry smile observed:

"I assume Senator Johnson was talking about others—not me. Senator Johnson made a wonderful record on quorum calls," Kennedy continued. "I'm strong for Lyndon B. Johnson sent to Albany for WPA approval."

Feb. 15 1951—A New York wood products manufacturer bought the original plant of the Rondout Valley Creamery Corp. in the Kerhonkson area.

The annual Chamber of Commerce dinner was held at the Governor Clinton Hotel.

An Albany report said a milk price cut was dependent upon many factors in the industry.

The overnight low here was 14 and the noon high 25 degrees.

as majority leader, and I'm confident that in that position, we'll be able to work together."

THE TEST OF ANYONE'S sense of humor, of course, is whether or not he can see and take a joke on himself. The President has passed that test with flying colors.

When he was campaigning in Texarkana, on the Texas-Arkansas line, in September, he told this one on himself:

"Yesterday (in Texas) I was shown the Alamo, and I was informed of all the brave deeds of all the Texans, of Bowie, Crockett and all the rest. So I said last night, 'Haven't you heard of Paul Revere?'"

"They said, 'Yes, he's the one who ran for help.'"

There are a few more of these Kennedy gags, which will be put down for posterity in this space in an early issue.

U. N. Ouster of Moscow For 'Treason' Is Urged

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON—What a travesty of grief the Moscow regime has given to the world over the news of Lumumba's death in the Congo!

No tears were shed by the Communists when they engineered the uprising inside the Congo last July that resulted in the rapping of many white women by Congolese natives.

Now the Communists blame the death of Lumumba—their own agent—on the Secretary General of the United Nations.

They claim that the dead tribesman was the "duly elected Premier" of the Congo Parliament. But on the same day that such propaganda was being transmitted over the air waves, Steward Alsop happened to publish in this week's issue of "The Saturday Evening Post" an article declaring that Lumumba has been a Communist tool. The article—written, of course, before Lumumba's death but after an extensive investigation in Africa—says in part:

"Much has been made by the Communists, the neutralists and some plain fatheads of the fact that Lumumba is the democratically elected Premier of the Congo. It is quite true that the Congolese Parliament voted to make Lumumba Premier. But this triumph of parliamentary democracy was achieved by a judicious mixture of threats and bribery. In Lumumba's heyday he bought members of the Congolese Parliament at the going rate of $2,000 a head. There was never much of a secret about where this money came from either. The Russians, the Czechs, the Chinese Communists, the Ghanians, the Egyptians and both the Belgian bankers and the Belgian Communists all bought a slice of Lumumba bull market."

"This, then, is how Lumumba became the 'democratically elected' Premier of the Congo. And this suggests how meaningless high-sounding words are likely to be, measured against the African realities."

Move by Nasser

Almost coincident with the publication of this remarkable story by Mr. Alsop—indeed, it is prophetic of today's events—the news came from Cairo that President Nasser of the United Arab Republic, who has been playing the Communist game right along in the Congo, has granted full recognition to the Congo regime headed by Antoine Gizenga, a lieutenant of Lumumba. He announced it in messages to the heads of the Casablanca conference nations—Morocco, Ghana and Guinea—and of Indonesia, India and Yugoslavia.

It will be recalled that the Casablanca conference decided as a group to withdraw their respective troop contingents from the United Nations forces in the Congo, thus, in effect, Communist activity in Africa is parallel with its underground operations throughout Latin America. Sooner or later the West will have to start revealing to the world the facts gathered for months about the Communist acts of hostility toward the UN and the West in Africa and on all other continents.

Sooner or later, too, nations that seek aid from America will have to rid themselves of every vestige of Communist influence if they expect to be regarded as friendly powers. "Neutrality" too often is just a cover for pro-Communist activity.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

After playing the affected role of "good loser" from election night through President Kennedy's coronation brawls, Richard M. Nixon has broken silence to publish and endorse a charge by "a reporter from a major paper" that the work of numerous correspondents on the Nixon campaign was "one of the most shameful chapters in the history of the American press."

Nixon wrote me a personal letter dated Jan. 18 impugning the election returns. They were the result of deliberate abuse of the franchise of the press. Nixon thus plainly has decided to maintain his campaign charges that Kennedy was "reckless, irresponsible, dangerously impulsive, immature, obsessed with fear, a breast-beating imitator of Adlai Stevenson, a distorter of facts helpful to Communist propagandists, putting politics above relief of misery and a downgrader of America." These criticisms were woven into his campaign and were repeated in the charges that his anonymous champion expressed in a long letter to Nixon at a date not specified.

"In view of some of the comments on the press coverage," Nixon wrote me, "I thought you might like to see a portion of a letter written to me by a reporter from a major paper who traveled with me throughout the campaign."

Although this reporter is not yet identified, it seems inevitable that Nixon and the reporter must arrange for him to stand forth in person and to name individuals whom he accuses of slandering in violation of their implied vows. I must allow that my own work, consisting of discourse and comments, was hostile to Kennedy almost entirely on the allegation that he had revealed timid character in the matter of Joe McCarthy. However, I did not go barnstorming with either candidate and my work was clearly understood to be opinionated discussion. But I know Kennedy better than I know Nixon personally by reason of more frequent and more intimate acquaintance.

Nixon's ally invites a charge of "McCarthyism" because he indicts all of his colleagues in the Nixon campaign. He writes that this "press coverage," in its entirety, was a "staggering" coup of slanted reporting. In a later sentence he seems to dilute this by offering to prove from the files that Nixon's attacks were softened by the "pro-Kennedy" press. Clearly the "pro-Kennedy" press, as he terms this element, might be less than the entire remainder beside himself.

This prejudice was flagrant in the daily stories of the first Alger Hiss trial. It is almost daily flagrant in ostensibly objective news and interpretations in the New York Times.

Cold No Excuse Defendant Loses His $10,000 Bail

TORONTO (AP) — Because his lawyer said he had a cold, Norman Joseph of Lewiston, N. Y., today was minus the $10,000 bail he had posted in appealing a jail sentence for keeping a gaming house.

Joseph failed to appear before the Ontario Court of Appeals Tuesday. The court rejected the lawyer's excuse and ordered the bail forfeited.

Joseph lost his appeal from a two-month term but extradition cannot be made from the United States on gaming-house charges.

Joseph also had failed to appear for the original case last October. He later was arrested in Burlington, fined $100 for absconding and convicted of the gaming charge.

The trial brought out that Joseph had engaged in a daily betting business of $15,000.

Thinks Kennedy To Revolutionize Male Formal Wear

By JAMES BACON

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Is President Kennedy the best dressed chief executive since George Washington?

Movie stylist Sy Devore not only thinks so but believes the youthful president will revolutionize formal wear.

"No one in our time—save the Duke of Windsor when he was Prince of Wales—will be more of a style setter than Mr. Kennedy," Devore said today.

The President's taste in clothes is conservative but always correct, said Devore, who designs wardrobes for many Hollywood fashion plates.

Devore believes the President's greatest sartorial influence will be where it's "needed most—on the youth."

"Too many of the young people have reduced casualness to sloppiness," Devore said. "Mr. Kennedy has had great political impact on youth. I think his clothes will have a similar influence."

The President wears sports clothes only for weekend or country wear, Devore said. On the job, his jackets and trousers match.

The President is a "well-dressed man of the world," Devore said, and there is little chance he will be influenced by the Hollywood trend in men's fashions.

Soviets Ahead in Colorful Firsts For Satellites Sent Into Space

EDITOR'S NOTE — The conquest of space is an adventure for all mankind, but the space age was born in the shadow of the military, and it still is sharply affected by the great cold war rivalry. In this second of three articles, American and Soviet achievements are compared.

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Writer
CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — In 40 months, 45 satellites have soared up successfully from the United States and Soviet Russia.

The Soviets put up 11, this country 34.

The Soviet Union leads in spectacular, impressive firsts and in weights. In quick succession this month, she put up a record-breaking seven-ton Sputnik, then capped this with a huge satellite which went into orbit, and then launched from space a 1,400-pound probe aimed at perhaps hitting or going into orbit around Venus.

The reach toward Venus opened a new, fourth phase of Soviet space age efforts. Until now, the Soviet Union has been bunched her shots in triple plays, each concerned with a different aspect or region of space.

First 3 Orbit Earth
Her first three Sputniks orbited the earth.

Then in 1959, she reached for the moon, hitting it, photographing its back side, and sending one probe past the moon to become the first little man-made planet of the sun. The United States later sent two probes into orbit around the sun, one of them radioing back space findings over a record distance of 22½ million miles.

Abruptly, the Soviets dropped the moon, and last year sent three spaceships, weighing up to five tons, orbiting near the earth. In a brilliant feat, the Soviets brought back part of their second spaceship containing two dogs. The time seemed near to launch a man, but in December the capsule of the third ship failed to obey command signals and burned up. Two dogs, other animals, insect and plant life all perished.

It was a rare if not the first official Soviet admission of any mishap in her space shoots.

Launch Venus Probe
Last weekend, the Soviets opened the interplanetary phase, with the new feat of launching a Venus probe from space itself.

She had remained curiously silent about the seven-ton Sputnik, but then one Soviet space official said it had been intended mainly to learn whether such a heavy satellite could be put and kept into a precise orbit.

The Sputnik launching the Venus messenger might have been another seven-ton affair.

The Soviets have behaved like eager explorers pioneering into an unknown continent—not waiting to settle and cultivate one region before roaring out to make first contact with another.

Her fifth venture could be man into space.

Two Years Ahead of U. S.
GAL 2 Achievement in Space.

Some Western experts believe the Soviets embarked in 1956 or earlier on a plan to send man into space. This would be at least two years ahead of the start of the U. S. program.

Sputnik II, carrying the dog Laika in November 1957, is taken as one sign of such intent.

Limited in weight by smaller rockets, but using ingenious miniaturized equipment, the American program has been more diversified, and more broadly based.

U. S. Leads in Practicality
The United States clearly leads, most experts say, in gleaming new scientific knowledge from and about space, and in cultivating space for valuable practical applications.

Tiros satellites photographing clouds and measuring earth temperatures took the first step toward keen weather eyes in space. Samos II, just put up by the Air Force, is using cameras which could serve as military scouts.

Echo, the shiny balloon, and Courier satellites are preparing the way for a space network to relay civilian telephone calls, TV and radio programs, and military commands.

Transit satellites augur artificial stars supplying exquisitely accurate navigational fixes for ships and planes.

Greater Benefits Coming
But even greater benefits could come from basic knowledge being learned about earth, air, space and sun.

U. S. satellites discovered the Van Allen radiation belts.

The satellites have explored more vigorously and keenly the earth's magnetic and gravitational fields, the great pulses of atomic particles hurled at the earth by gigantic explosions on the sun, the ionosphere, upper atmosphere, the pressure exerted by sunlight, the shape of the earth.

18 U.S. Skaters

There was a tremendous explosion. On a Liege-Brussels express train skirting the airport many passengers saw the disaster. Said one:

Rears Up Vertically
"The plane appeared to be making a normal approach to land when, on hearing the ground, it suddenly reared up pointing almost vertically, nose up into the sky. Then it fell back like a giant stone and we heard an explosion."

From her home near the crash scene, Mrs. M. Croon said the plane was "making much more noise and was much lower than they usually are."

A freighter, the Casa Grande, was unable to keep up with the convoy and dropped out just north of West Point yesterday.

A rumor that one of the vessels, identified as the Posy, an oil boat, had sprung a leak and turned back could not be verified today. The Freeman inquired at Coast Guard headquarters and was told that it had no record of a vessel by that name in the convoy.

The convoy formed near the George Washington Bridge Monday and began cranking up stream on the 150-mile voyage to Albany. Heading the convoy is the 6,300-ton Westwind, a Coast Guard icebreaker.

Adlai Rips Soviet
African republic and (3) withdrawal of all U.N. forces within a month.

Both the chief U.S. delegate Adlai E. Stevenson and Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian A. Zorin were to address the council this morning.

The Soviets seized on the assassination of former Congo Premier Patrice Lumumba to step up their campaign, launched last September by Soviet Premier Khrushchev in his table-thumping appearance before the United Nations, to rescind that organization's Moscow ultimatum.

The strongly-worded Soviet resolution accused Hammarskjöld of being "an accomplice and organizer" of Lumumba's slaying while in the hands of his political enemies. Earlier the Soviets declared they would have no dealings with the secretary-general.

U. S. Supports Dag
The United States immediately pledged support to Hammarskjöld.

Britain and Italy charged the Soviets with trying to exploit Lumumba's death to install a Soviet-subversive regime in the Congo. Indian spokesmen also called for continuance of U.N. operations in the Congo as offering the only chance to prevent civil war that many feared would involve the major powers in another Korean-style conflagration.

The Soviet resolution also charged Belgium with prime responsibility for Lumumba's death and called for sanctions against the Congo's former ruler.

The resolution demanded the arrest of Katanga Province President Moïse Tshombe, in whose province Lumumba was killed, and Maj. Gen. Joseph Mobutu, the army chief of President Joseph Kasavubu's regime, and the disarming of all troops and police under their control.

The Soviets also demanded the immediate disarmament and withdrawal from the Congo of all Belgian forces and all Belgian personnel.

Some Asian and African nations were reported favoring adoption of penalties against Belgium if that country failed to withdraw both its civilian and military personnel from the Congo.

Denies Belgium Blame
Belgian Foreign Minister Pierre Wigny in Brussels vehemently denied again that Belgium had anything to do with the arrest and death of the man they installed as head of the independent Congo government eight months ago.

Stevenson told the U.N. Correspondents Association the United States is still working for a constructive and workable solution of the Congo crisis, but he acknowledged the situation is grave.

Hammarskjöld maintained a strict silence on the Soviet demands for the U.N. withdrawal from the Congo and his own dismissal.

The Dutchess County Board of Supervisors on Tuesday passed a resolution asking State Senator Ernest I. Hatfield and Assemblyman R. Watson Pomeroy to introduce legislation to provide state funds for local government for snow removal expenses.

The Board also authorized the increase of the snow removal budget from $50,000 to $70,000 to finance costs incurred from recent snowstorms.

Fire Magazine Quotes Chief Brett
Sprinklers, Exits Major Safeguards Against Fire

Fire Chief James M. Brett, in an opinion published in this month's issue of "Fire Engineering," emphasizes sprinkler systems and location of exits in public buildings as main safeguards against fire.

The article: "I have been following with great interest the many articles appearing in Fire Engineering on school fire protection since the Chicago School fire, in particular the current Round Table discussion, as well as a very enlightening article by Professor Gerald L. ## Ship Convoy Goes Past Kingston Today at Noon

The U. S. Coast Guard convoy which left New York City Monday with a group of freighters, oilers and tugs passed Kingston about noon today, proceeding steadily upstream.

Included in the group was the African Monarch which was broken out of ice near the Esopus Meadows Coast Guard Station south of Kingston early this morning as the convoy reached the scene. The Monarch had been imprisoned in the channel about 500 feet off Esopus Meadows for the past 10 days. It was stalled initially by engine trouble.

A freighter, the Casa Grande, was unable to keep up with the convoy and dropped out just north of West Point yesterday.

A rumor that one of the vessels, identified as the Posy, an oil boat, had sprung a leak and turned back could not be verified today. The Freeman inquired at Coast Guard headquarters and was told that it had no record of a vessel by that name in the convoy.

3 Million More Jobless Seen in Next 13 Months

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg estimated today that three million more Americans will suffer long-term unemployment in the next 13 months and urged Congress to pass swiftly President Kennedy's bill to extend jobless benefits.

Goldberg testified before the House Ways and Means Committee as the administration opened its drive for enactment of its economic package. The measure picked for that effort is the one generally considered to have the least opposition. It would provide federal funds for extension, up to 13 weeks, of unemployment benefits to those who have used up their rights under existing law.

GOP Hits Gloom
As the hearing got under way the Republicans ran up new storm signals for the whole program, assailing what they called "Democratic gloom-and-doom distortions."

The GOP national committee publication "Battle Line" labeled as a major political exaggeration a statement by House Speaker Sam Rayburn that the need to do something about unemployment is "the most urgent since the Great Depression."

The publication said that while unemployment is serious in a few areas, the state of the economy is generally sound.

Goldberg, who recently completed a tour of some of the hardest-hit unemployment areas, told the committee he had seen at first hand what he called the destructive effects of unemployment not only on the jobless themselves but on "the economic health of our communities and the nation."

Two-Ply Benefits
This (unemployment compensation) program will quickly put into circulation almost a billion dollars of purchasing power to buy the necessities of life," Goldberg said, adding that the money would go out quickly to a large number of people and therefore "the most beneficial to our economy."

He estimated that the number of unemployed who have exhausted their benefits, now one-half million, will rise to 600,000 by April 1 and "in the 12 months following April 1 at least another 3 million workers are expected to exhaust benefits before they get jobs, of which about 24 million are expected to draw extended benefits under this program."

The outlook, he said, is for worse unemployment than prevailed in 1958-59 when he said 2.7 million persons exhausted their rights during the corresponding months.

The administration bill would provide federal advances to the states to extend unemployment benefits, and would boost the unemployment tax on employers by increasing its base from $3,000 to $4,800 per employee. Goldberg said the increased yield would enable the states to repay the federal government within five years and also build up their reserves.

Gets Long Term For Girl Attack
A 39-year-old Hudson man was sentenced Tuesday by Columbia County Judge William F. Christiana to 7½ to 15 years in Clinton State Prison at Dannemora for a conviction of second degree rape of a 12-year-old girl.

John LeRoy Allen, who also was convicted of impairing the morals of a minor, a misdemeanor, was sentenced to an additional term of one year in the County Jail. Allen pleaded guilty as a second offender.

In sentencing Allen, Judge Christiana said it was his opinion the defendant was mentally disturbed, but two psychiatrists from the Hudson River State Hospital concluded after an examination that Allen understood the nature of the charges against him and was able to consult with an attorney to prepare his defense.

to introduce legislation to provide state funds for local government for snow removal expenses.

The Board also authorized the increase of the snow removal budget from $50,000 to $70,000 to finance costs incurred from recent snowstorms.

Curtis Case Has 6 Jurors Today By Noon Recess

Prior to the noon recess six jurors had been accepted in County Court for trial of the Newton Curtis, first degree murder, case. Six jurors were excused by Assistant District Attorney Joseph Torrance and defense counsel, G. Thomas Rea, during the morning session.

Tuesday afternoon eight jurors were excused by acting Judge Francis X. Tucker by consent of counsel.

Whether an extra panel of trial jurors will be necessary for completion of the panel depends on acceptance of the remaining six jurors and two alternates from the remaining 18 jurors available from the regular panel.

Curtis, 31, is accused of killing his brother, Oliver (Jack) Curtis last August 24 at Quarryville. It is alleged the brothers quarreled over who should be caretaker of a community premises and that in the affair Oliver was struck with a bed slat and was found next day outside the house dead from the beating. Newton was later arrested and charged with the crime.

Focus on Health In World Today

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Common colds, uncommon climates and a strange fever in Singapore turn the focus on health.

What's in a Cold
The trouble with the common cold is that the only things common about it are the symptoms.

Any of a handful of known viruses and bacteria can cause the common misery of the common cold.

But no cause—either bacteria or virus—has been identified for at least 80 percent of the common sporadic diseases seen in adults, says Dr. Alfred S. Evans of the University of Wisconsin.

Bacteria are responsible for only some 5 to 7 percent of respiratory diseases, he says in an article entitled, "Sneezes, Wheezes and Other Diseases." Flu viruses and adenoviruses, prevalent among military recruits, account for less than 13 percent of such illness in adults.

Weather to Live
Your health, good or bad, may be made by the weather—in spite of coats, radiators, air-conditioning, medicine and all.

Researchers find strange correlations between climate and disease.

Colds reach a peak in winter, and in stormy climates with changing temperatures and pressures.

Digestive disorders are most frequent in hot climates and in hot summer months.

More diabetes is found in winter—and in winter insulin requirements increase.

Skin infections increase in summer, and in high temperature and humidity. Skin cancer is most prevalent in the sunny south.

Multiple sclerosis occurs most often in cool climates and in spring and fall weather changes. Fever in Singapore

An epidemic of fever broke out in Singapore last summer, striking all races and ages.

Fever ran as high as 104 degrees. Immediate symptoms were headache, severe body aches and vomiting. Patients usually recovered in a week.

But the disease had another strange effect: Patients broke out in patches of bleeding rash. Small blood vessels became more fragile, and there was a decrease in the blood's ability to clot.

Our word "puny" is from the old French "puiso," meaning "born afterward"; hence "weak; inferior in size or strength."

School 4 Pupils Are Preparing For Science Fair

Students and teachers of School No. 4 are busy organizing and preparing work to be exhibited at the school during the third annual Science Fair, March 13-17.

Children select the areas in which they are interested and through study, research and guidance by their teachers, construct projects for exhibition. The young scientists are encouraged to be original, creative and independent in their work.

Materials used in construction, in many instances, are collected from scrap materials. A fine spirit of sharing in this collection exists among the children. Parents, merchants, local business concerns and friends have been most cooperative in aiding the children in their search for usable materials.

It is expected that the exhibits will be varied in scope. Grade 4 is planning to exhibit fossil rock collections, prehistoric animal models, moon rockets and other projects involving electricity, light and nature study.

In Grade 5 the study of cement has again captured interest. A display of planets, shell collections, experiments in expansion and contraction and sound will prove interesting. Several boys in this grade are interested in the construction of a movie projector.

Grade 6 has selected the area of "keeping healthy" with models of the eye, ear, stomach, brain and circulatory system. Projects on food, the atmosphere, magnetism, electricity and chemical change are also being formulated.

Pupils of the kindergarten, special class, and Grades 1, 2 and 3 are also planning to exhibit their scientific efforts along with those of the older children.

Glancing Over TV Bill of Fare

By BERNARD GAVZER

NEW YORK (AP) — Millions have seen his work and critics have, but actor Rod Colbin finds that being an expert with swords isn't all it's cut out to be.

Colbin has staged swordplay on Broadway and in television. The most demanding recent assignment was 23 separate duels in the two-part CBS presentation of "The Three Musketeers."

Critics wrote the show off as a disappointment, but they went for the duels with great gusto, commenting generally that the fencing had grace, daring, movement and surprises.

This suits Colbin fine—but he has some reservations.

"I want to use my capabilities as an actor and as a fencing master," he says, "but when I appear before a producer for a reading, I can see that in the back of his mind he is saying to himself, 'Colbin? He's a fencer. Why should he want to read?'"

As an actor, Colbin's experience ranges from the crazy servant in "The Taming of the Shrew," to Hubert, the death-dealing henchman of King John, to Carl Whipple, the young retired grain merchant in the CBS soap opera, "As the World Turns."

He credits his career as an actor with an important part in the success of his dueling scenes.

"This is because I approach the duel scene—the choreography of the duel—in the same way as I would approach the scene as an actor. Each duel has a beginning, a middle and end. I try to heighten movements and also keep them from swinging all the time. The absence of blade clashes can be quite effective. The same is true in speech. It would be boring to have an actor talking all the time."

These special scholarships entitle the holders to $450 a year for the next four years in any approved college or university located within New York State selected by the scholarship winner.

Smoke, No Fire

BROOKLYN, Conn. (AP)—The two men weren't as interested in the furnace as they were in smoke. They posed as furnace inspectors at a supermarket, and when nobody was looking, made off with 500 cartons of cigarettes.

Two Local Girls Awarded Nursing State Scholarship

ALBANY—The State Education Department announced today the names of the 300 high school pupils—two from Kingston—whom Regents scholarships for basic professional education in nursing have been awarded as a result of a competitive examination held October 10-11, 1960.

They are Margaret Patterson of Kingston High School and Patricia Tongue, attending the Academy of St. Ursula in this city.

There are issued to the pupils of each county twice as many scholarships as there are Assembly districts in the county. The holder of one of these scholarships will be entitled to an annual stipend depending on financial need for up to four years while in attendance at one of the schools of nursing in New York State approved by the Board of Regents for the training of registered professional nurses.

Search Pressed For City Grocer

Police reported early this afternoon they had received word of the whereabouts of Martin Garber, of 192 Albany Avenue, proprietor of a grocery store at 455 Washington Avenue, who was reported missing.

Mrs. Ruth Garber said her husband left home Monday morning to go to the uptown store after saying goodbye to her and their two sons, Steven 13, and Paul 10. He did not arrive at the store.

Mrs. Garber said both children are ill. Her husband was seen by a collector entering the Thruway interchange area about 8:45 a. m., driving his 1957 blue and cream Plymouth.

Mrs. Garber said a note left by her husband indicating financial business difficulties was found in the house some time after he left. She said her husband is "very attached" to the children.

Police sent out a general missing person's teletype alarm describing Garber as five feet, eight inches tall, weighing about 175 pounds. He has brown eyes and dark hair.

Swiss Offended By JFK Choice Of Envoy Smith

BERN, Switzerland (AP)—Swiss officials privately disclosed today that the government is embarrassed by President Kennedy's proposed appointment of Earl E. T. Smith of Palm Beach, Fla., as ambassador to Switzerland.

There was no official comment. A Foreign Office spokesman said the cabinet has taken no decision thus far. The nomination has been under official study for more than a week.

Smith has been criticized in Swiss newspapers since his name leaked out of Washington. Feb. 7 several hours before the Swiss government received the formal request for his accreditation.

One source said the government was offended by the premature disclosure, which made it difficult for the Swiss to turn Smith down. Switzerland's objections to Smith apparently come from his term as ambassador to Cuba from 1957 to 1959, when he was regarded as close to ousted President Fulgencio Batista.

Exposure Is Verdict

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y. (AP)—A speed skater whose bruised body was found in Congress Park Jan. 15 died accidentally of exposure, a coroner decided today.

Coroner James B. Dorsey said there was no evidence from the post-mortem or an inquest to indicate foul play in the death of Robert Matthews, 18, of North Arlington, N. J.

Dorsey said blood tests showed that Matthews was intoxicated. Matthews, a freshman at the Newark, N. J., division of Rutgers University, had come here to compete in a skating contest.

leyville. Mysterious Soviet vessels recently have slipped unannounced through the Suez Canal reportedly carrying arms and explosives. There have been signs of increased Soviet arms deliveries to Egypt itself, indicating the Soviet might be using Cairo as an arms depot.

Financial and Commercial

By ED MORSE

AP Business News Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Steels, motors and aircraft-missiles rose as a churning stock market moved ahead on balance in heavy trading early this afternoon.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .50 at 234.00 with industrials up 1.40, rails up .10 and utilities down .10. Gains of fractions to about a point among key stocks outnumbered losses. A few stocks took sharp losses.

The rise was a ragged affair featured by bursts of very active trading.

Attention to fighting the recession was focused by Labor Secretary Arthur J. Goldberg's estimate that three million more Americans will suffer long-term unemployment in the next 12 months and his plea that Congress pass President Kennedy's bill to extend jobless benefits. The anti-recession theme continued to have an inflationary ring in Wall Street's ears.

Oils, utilities, and chemicals were mixed. Electrical equipments declined. Tobacco and drugs advanced.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up 3.62 at 646.53. Volume in the first two hours was 1.96 million shares.

Quotations by Morgan Davis & Co., members of the New York Stock Exchange, 63 Wall Street, New York City, branch office, 41 John Street, Manhattan. F. Hasbrouck, Jr., manager.

H. E. Coale Chairman Again For Red Cross Advance Gifts

Harry E. Coale, a Kingston resident and a veteran chairman of the advanced gifts division of the annual Red Cross fund drive, has accepted the chairmanship of the division again this year and is now conducting that phase of the campaign. It was announced today by campaign chairman Wilbur R. Peters.

"The local chapter is fortunate to have a man of Mr. Coale's calibre and experience to head the vitally important advanced gifts division," said Mr. Peters.

"Traditionally, the contributions to Mr. Coale's division have accounted for 50 per cent of the entire campaign goal and if the Red Cross is to continue to provide disaster relief and other vital public services, the 1961 campaign must be a continuation of the successful fund drives in previous years," added Mr. Peters.

As chairman of the advanced gifts division, Mr. Coale is responsible for contributions from industry, business firms, banks, doctors, lawyers and dentists in Ulster County.

Mr. Coale, who resides at 9 Andrews Street, is president of the Telephone Answering Service Inc. in Kingston.

He is a past treasurer of Moose Lodge, 970, and is a member of the Masonic Lodge, Tuckahoe, and the Koenig Athletic Club, sponsors of the Metropolitan Knot Hole league.

Wagner Rules Out DeSapio Help in Third Term Bid

NEW YORK (AP)—Mayor Robert F. Wagner says that if he runs for a third term this year he will "not seek or accept the support" of Tammany Hall leader Carmine G. DeSapio.

Wagner recently called for the resignation of DeSapio, who backed him in his two campaigns. The mayor pressed his attack on DeSapio at a City Hall news conference Tuesday.

Wagner faced up to a veiled threat, made by DeSapio, a few hours earlier that a Democratic primary election fight is shaping up.

The mayor said: "I have never been afraid of a primary fight. If I run, I will run either with or without a primary."

Wagner said he is "not affiliated with any group in the Democratic party" and he sought DeSapio's resignation as head of the Manhattan Democratic organization "only for the good of the party."

Wagner has not aligned himself with the Democratic insurgent group whose principal leader is former Sen. Herbert H. Lehman. DeSapio, who was interviewed Tuesday night on radio, declined to comment directly on Wagner's rejection of any support from him. Asked whom he would support for mayor, DeSapio said: "We have many adequate people in the Democratic party."

Mino Scheduled Before Judiciary Body on Tuesday

The name of District Attorney Raymond J. Mino was sent by Governor Nelson A. Rockefeller to the State Senate Tuesday for confirmation as Ulster County judge and judge of children's court.

It is reported on good authority that the Senate is expected to act promptly, perhaps next Tuesday.

Mino will succeed Louis G. Bruhn who resigned as county judge when appointed to the Supreme Court bench Jan. 1, 1961.

Mino is scheduled to appear before the Senate Judiciary Committee next Tuesday, after which his name will be submitted to the Senate by Sen. E. Ogden Bush of the 34th Senatorial District.

Confirmation of Mino will open a vacancy in the office of district attorney.

Attorney David Corwin of New Paltz is expected to be appointed district attorney succeeding Mino.

Belgian Embassy Is Set Afire as Lumumba Protest

CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—Mobs set fire to the Belgian Embassy in Cairo today in protest against the death of Patrice Lumumba.

The mob broke through a police cordon two blocks from the compound, smashing windows, scattering files and throwing papers and other articles into the streets. The embassy staff had left earlier and there were no reports of any casualties.

The demonstrators then turned to the U. S. Embassy, stoned it and fought with police.

Area Men Promoted by IBM

ROBERT C. ROLFE

Two Hurley residents and a Saugerties man have received appointments at the local International Business Machines plant.

Robert C. Rolfe of Hurley has been named senior engineer in computer equipment design, according to announcement made today by Henry E. Cooley, manager of IBM Federal Systems Division Command Control Center engineering laboratory, Kingston.

Bernard J. Mizel of Hurley, has been appointed to the post of manager of technical publications in an announcement made by Richard J. Whalen, general manager of the IBM Federal Systems Division Command Control Center here.

Cecil A. Branson of Saugerties has been appointed assistant for planning controls, IBM 7030 (STRETCH) maintenance engineering.

Rolfe is responsible for the design, release and support of all data processing systems using the encapsulated device technology and all subsequent modifications.

Joined Firm in 1952

He joined IBM in 1952 as a technical engineer in computer design at the IBM plant in Poughkeepsie. He was transferred to the SAGE experimental sub-sector, Lexington, Mass., as an associate engineer. Return to the Command Control Center, Kingston, the following year as a project engineer. He was named a development engineer in solid state computer design two years later, a post he has held until his present appointment.

Rolfe is a member of the Institute of Radio Engineers and the Hurley Lions Club. He received a bachelor of science degree in electrical engineering from Manhattan College.

He, his wife, Eleanor, and children, Robert Jr., 4, and Eleanor, 1, reside on Maple Lane, Hurley.

A graduate of Kingston High School, Mizel is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Mizel, of 221 Albany Avenue.

He is responsible for the publication of manuals, engineering documents, proposals and reports.

Ulster Merchants Study Plan for Soap Box Derby

A committee to study the possibility of holding a Soap Box Derby for town of Ulster young people was appointed Tuesday evening at the regular meeting of the Ulster Businessmen's Association at the Oak Grove Motel.

President Francis Smith appointed Richard Hall, chairman, Harold E. Machold Jr., and Ted Musialkiewicz. Smith will serve as the fourth member.

One of the major problems in sponsoring such a derby is finding a suitable street which could be blocked off for the event.

The wagons would have to be built according to specifications which would be announced by the committee, if the derby should become a reality.

The association took cognizance of a letter from the State Department of Public Works in which it was pointed out that Albany Avenue extension from the city line north to the turn-off to the Kingston-Rhinecliff bridge has been surveyed to study the feasibility of widening it. The letter pointed out that the project would require no additional land.

Saugerties Man Buys 45 Acres At Sleighsburg

Some 45 acres of land in the Sleighsburg area overlooking the Hudson River have been purchased by Arthur H. Isabella of Saugerties, proprietor of Artie's Bar & Grill, 44 North Front Street, it was learned today.

Purchase of the land from the Cokendall estate is in the nature of a speculation, Isabella indicated today.

He said the property, with some 600 to 800 feet of river frontage, would be ideal for location of a marina, a park, a restaurant which could be reached by car and boat, etc. He has nothing specific in mind at the present time.

He pointed out that the location of the property on the river is excellent, with a full view downstream, "one of the nicest locations between Albany and New York City."

Isabella explained that acreage could be expanded to 79 acres, perhaps by use of landfill.

Mizel is a member of the Kingston Kiwanis. He received a bachelor or science degree in mechanical engineering from Lehigh University.

He, his wife, the former Isabel Gill, of Hurley, and children, Susan, 11, Marion, 6, and John, 6, reside on Mountain View Avenue, Hurley.

Came to City in 1954

Branson joined IBM in 1948, as a customer engineer in Jefferson City, Mo. He was transferred to the Kingston organization in 1954 as a technical writer in technical publications at Poughkeepsie. He was named manager of equipment manuals in early 1956 and manager of technical publications at Kingston two years later, a post he has held until his present appointment.

Branson is a member of the Society of Technical Writers and Publishers. He received a bachelor of science degree in mechanical engineering from the Missouri School of Mines.

He, his wife, Shirley, and son, Michael, 7, reside at 2 Cherry Lane, Saugerties.

The name of Honan province, China, means "south of the river, though a good part of it lies north of the Yellow River."

New York State Bonds Discussed Today

ROGER E. SPEAR

Q) "At present I own New York State Power bonds, 4.20's due in 2006. If you were in my position, would you add more bonds of the same issue to my portfolio, or are there other New York State or City bonds at a higher rate of income? Is there any risk attached to these bonds? I am interested in tax exemptions as you can see." M. M.

A) The bonds you own are obligations of the New York State Power Authority, which was set up to develop the St. Lawrence Power project and the Niagara Power project. These are revenue bonds, which are payable only out of earnings derived from the power projects when they are completed.

Like many other revenue bonds, New York State Power 4.20's are traded on a dollar basis and were recently quoted about 105 1/4-105 3/4. At the latter price, which is the asking price, the yield is 3.97 per cent, about as high as you can expect to get on any Empire State tax-exempt bonds. This compares with a yield of 3.50 per cent on State of New York long-term general obligations, and 3.70 per cent for long-term New York City's. I believe there is negligible risk in buying bonds issued by the various authorities of New York State or City bonds at a higher rate of income? Is there any risk attached to these bonds? I am interested in tax exemptions as you can see." M. M.

A) I don't like this stock, but periodically there seems to be a little runup here. I would watch for the next one. And get out.

Mr. Spear cannot answer all mail personally but will answer all questions possible in his column.

53,000 Took Exam

The examination was written by about 53,000 high school seniors in 1,200 secondary schools of the state on October 10, 1960.

The holder of one of these scholarships will be entitled to an annual award of $250 to $700, depending on financial need, for each of four years of a college course while attending any college in the state approved by the regents for this purpose.

The legislature is now considering proposals to increase both the amount of the scholarship award and the number of scholarships. Should the number in the 1961 series be increased, a supplementary list of winners will be released in the spring.

Central Is Given ICC Authority to Absorb 4 Lines

WASHINGTON (AP)—The New York Central Railroad had federal permission today to absorb four of its subsidiary lines.

The move, approved Tuesday by the Interstate Commerce Commission, was designed to simplify the Central's corporate structure and save more money than under the road's leasing system.

The lines are the Beach Creek Extension Railroad operating in Pennsylvania, wholly-owned by Central, and the Boston & Albany Railroad, the Ware River Railroad, and the Pittsfield & North Adams Railroad, all in New England in which Central owns more than two-thirds of the voting stock.

The Central was authorized to issue bonds and exchange them for the remaining stock outstanding in these companies.

The consolidation had been proposed in connection with the recent permission granted by ICC for the Central, now incorporated in New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Michigan to re-incorporate in Delaware.

Estimate Is Down On Milk Output

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government has sliced about 2.5 billion pounds off its previous estimate of milk production in 1960.

Earlier it had estimated production at about 125.5 billion pounds for the year. But a downward revision has been made on the basis of findings of the 1959 agricultural census, the new figure being 122.9 billion pounds. It also reduced the 1959 production figure from 124.4 billion to 121.9 billion pounds.

The department also reports that the average number of milk cows on farms during 1960 was 17.5 million a record low in its series of estimates beginning in 1942. Milk cow numbers have decreased each year since 1953, but the decline from 1959 to 1960 was only 2 per cent compared with 4 to 5 in each of the three preceding years. Milk production per cow in 1960 was estimated at 7,004 pounds compared with 6,815 in 1959 and 5,731 in the 1949-58 period.

The cause of the accident was not immediately determined.

FOOD FOR AMERICANS

Lobster Rolls Are Yankee Hot Dogs

MAN-SIZE treat is an apt description of New England lobster rolls. They're a good meatless protein suggestion.

GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Along the New England sea coast lobster rolls are as popular as hot dogs. Ever eat one? If you have, you can understand. Today, with excellent canned lobster available, you don't have to live on the rockbound coast to enjoy them. Make good meatless protein dish for Lenten meals.

Lobster Rolls
(Makes 1 dozen)

Yeast Rolls
1 package dry or 1 cake compressed yeast
1 1/2 cups lukewarm water
1 1/2 cups boiling water
1/2 cup butter or margarine
2 teaspoons salt
1/2 cup sugar
1 1/2 cups enriched corn meal
4 1/2 to 4 3/4 cups sifted enriched flour
2 eggs
Poppy seed
Sesame seed

Soften yeast in lukewarm water (use warm water for dry yeast). Pour boiling water over butter, salt and sugar; stir occasionally until butter melts. Cool to lukewarm. Stir in corn meal, 2 cups flour and softened yeast. Add eggs and beat until smooth. Stir in enough more flour to make soft dough.

Turn out on lightly floured board or canvas; knead until satiny, about 10 minutes. Round dough into ball; place in greased bowl; brush lightly with melted shortening. Cover and let rise until double in size, about 1 hour. Punch dough down; turn out on lightly floured board or canvas. Cover and let rest 10 minutes. Divide dough in half; cut each half in 12 pieces. Shape each piece to form a 1 1/2 x 4-inch roll.

Place on greased cookie sheets; cover and let rise until almost double in size, about 45 minutes. Brush tops of rolls with slightly beaten egg white; sprinkle half with poppy seeds, remainder with sesame seeds. Bake in pre-heated oven (400 degrees F.) 15 to 20 minutes. Cool; split 12 rolls and fill with lobster filling and a dill pickle slice. Store remainder of rolls for another meal.

Lobster Filling
1/2 cup mayonnaise
1/2 teaspoon dry mustard
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
2 cups chopped celery
2 cups chopped canned or cooked lobster
Sliced dill pickle

Combine mayonnaise, mustard, salt, and pepper; add remaining ingredients and toss together.

Swindle Play Aids to Slam

BY OSWALD JACOBY
Written for
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Just a couple of weeks ago in discussing Sam Fry's latest book I mentioned that he is a most aggressive bidder.

I now see him appearing as declarer at a slam contract that most players would not reach, but Sam both bid it and made it.

Since Fred Karpin is not concerned with the bidding he does not point out that North did show up with a lot of stuff for his two no-trump response to Sam's two heart bid.

Fred does point out that Sam was able to make a successful deceptive play from dummy.

The deception occurred at trick one and was made possible because the diamonds lay just right for Sam. It doesn't look like much of a play, but it was effective.

Sam covered the jack with the queen. East produced the king and Sam won with his singleton ace.

Then he went over to dummy with the nine of clubs and tried the heart finesse. It lost to West's king and all West had to do to set Sam would be to lead a spade.

Now put yourself in West's position. After Sam's play of the diamond card wouldn't you think that he would hold another diamond and wouldn't you try to cash your ten spot rather than lead a spade? Anyway, this West did and Sam was able to discard all dummy's spades on his hearts.

Harman, 53, of Fort Plain, was placed in charge of the State Tax Department's treasury division, which has custody of the state funds and disburses unemployment-insurance benefits. Harman succeeded James R. Macduff of Schenectady, who was named a member of the State Tax Commission.

Carnival Couple's Case in Neglect Of Child Re-set

LAWRENCEVILLE, Va. (AP)—A Brunswick County judge has ruled that the case of an itinerant carnival couple charged with neglect in the death of their daughter should be heard by the Juvenile and Domestic Relations Court.

Kenneth E. Dudley, 47, and his wife, Irene, 44, are charged in the death of their daughter, Carol Ann 8. Her body was found in a wooded section near here last Thursday. Death was attributed primarily to malnutrition and exposure.

Judge Emerson Baugh rescheduled the case at a later date after postponing a hearing Tuesday. He deferred the hearing earlier in the day because he said an overflow crowd "tended to give the appearance of a fair hearing."

Since that the Dudleys might not appear, Sheriff W. E. Hill said he is still seeking four children the Dudleys said they gave to another carnival worker in Florida. The parents said they did not know who had the children now, or where they were.

KNOW YOUR SAVINGS BANK

Q. What is the significance of the phrase, "Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation?"

A. The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation is an independent agency of the United States Government. It is not tax supported, but is financed by the member banks themselves. The fact that the premium is just one-twelfth of one per cent of deposits testifies to the soundness of its member banks. The premium payment is a part of a member bank's operating expenses — it is never a charge to the depositor.

A bank's membership in FDIC protects its depositors because:

- Each bank approved for deposit insurance must meet high standards.
- Adherence to these standards is determined regularly through bank examinations.
- If, despite these precautions, an insured bank gets into difficulties, the FDIC is there promptly* with cash to protect the depositors.

*The FDIC usually begins payments to the depositors within 10 days.

John Larson, Rotron Engineer Is Candidate for OCS Board

John C. Larson of the Ohayo Mountain Road in Woodstock is one of five candidates seeking to fill a vacancy on the Ontario Board of Education.

There are three candidates from West Hurley—James Hogan, David Fox and Richard Stewart—and another from West Shokan, R. C. Cruthers.

The vacancy was created by the resignation of trustee John Haggerty of West Hurley because of ill health.

The five candidates are expected to attend a special meeting of the Ontario Board Thursday night at 7:30 p. m. The selection will be announced on Monday, Feb. 20, at a regular meeting of the board.

Is Employee of Rotron

Larson, who has twin daughters—Karen and Kathy—attending school in the OCS district—is assistant chief engineer at Rotron Manufacturing Co. in Woodstock. He and Mrs. Larson reside on the lower Ohayo Mountain Road and have a son, Larry, who attends parochial school in Catskill.

A native of Peoria, Illinois, Larson, who is 45, holds one of the most important positions in the rapidly expanding Rotron company. He is in charge of the company's new products division.

Larson received his early education in the Peoria school system and in 1942 graduated from Illinois University with a BS degree in Mechanical Engineering.

Upon graduation from Illinois, Larson accepted a position with the General Electric Company and was with G.E. for 15 years, leaving to accept a position with Rotron. He served for 9 years in the research laboratory department of the Knolls Atomic and Power Lab, Physics Department and was associated with the development of the nuclear power plant for the Sea Wolf submarine.

Active With Youth

He was transferred to Louisville, Ky., where he worked in the refrigerator department of G.E. as a specialist engineer in the world's most highly automated factory. While he was in the Schenectady area, he was consulting engineer on redesigning the heating system of the central school at Rotterdam Junction, near Schenectady, at the request of Charles Hoffman, president of the Board of Education.

Larson has been active in the Boy Scout and Little League movements. He worked with Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts in Louisville. As an active member of the Woodstock Riding Club and Woodstock Jaycees, he has evinced continuing interest in children's programs and activities. He is currently assisting in coordinating the winter program for members of the Junior Riding division of the Riding Club. Larson's background makes him an ideal candidate for the post. His basic education philosophy is that it is the obligation and responsibility of the school system to achieve the maximum potential in every pupil.

BULLETIN:

Super Shell with 9 ingredients now contains 1 quick-start component; 1 fast warm-up ingredient; 1 mileage booster; 1 anti-knock mix; 2 octane boosters; 1 gum preventive; 1 anti-icer and new improved TCP—to give your car top performance

Read the facts about the remarkable formula of today's Super Shell. You'll learn why every one of these nine ingredients is essential if you want top performance from today's "critical" engines.

ENGINES ARE much more finicky than they were even a decade ago. That's why your car needs every one of the nine ingredients in today's Super Shell.

Test drivers, noted for conservative statements, go so far as to call many recent engines "critical." In fact, many will tell you that you probably do not know how good your car's engine really is, simply because it may be running well below peak efficiency. Today's Super Shell gasoline is designed to help correct this state of affairs.

Read on if you want to learn exactly how each of the nine ingredients in Super Shell helps every car deliver its best. Shell's own test drivers call it top performance.

1. The quick-start component in Super Shell is so volatile it's kept underground.

The Butane in today's Super Shell is like the priming charge in a shotgun shell. Its quick-firing volatility is what gets you started fast on cold days. Quick-start Butane, in fact, vaporizes so easily that it is kept under pressure—22 million gallons of it—in a specially dug cavern, 40 stories underground!

Because of Butane, your engine can start in seconds. You save your battery. You don't waste gasoline by pumping, pumping, pumping raw fuel through your engine before it finally catches.

2. The fast warm-up ingredient in Super Shell acts like kindling for a fire.

The fast warm-up you get with Super Shell comes from its Pentane mix. Pentanes are "kindling" molecules—split from heavier hydrocarbons. They release their energy quickly, giving you top cold-weather performance in a hurry.

3. The mileage booster in Super Shell owes its energy to carloads of platinum catalyst.

Shell uses eight million dollars' worth of platinum catalyst to produce Platformate, the extra-energy, extra-mileage ingredient in today's Super Shell. But fortunately for you and for us, this precious stuff can be used over and over again.

The platinum catalyst, which gives the Platformate its odd name, helps to re-form petroleum into super-energy components—such as benzene, xylene and toluene.

These three alone release 11 per cent more energy per gallon than the best 100-octane aviation gasoline.

But make no mistake. This is not untamed energy. Far from it. The super-energy of Platformate is harnessed by the eight other ingredients in Super Shell, where it behaves so well you scarcely know it's there. That is until you note your extra mileage. After that, there is no doubt.

4. The anti-knock mix in Super Shell is so effective that one teaspoonful is enough to treat a gallon.

The human ear is nowhere near sensitive enough when you're trying to detect the slightest trace of knock. Shell scientists depend instead on an astonishing set of instruments that registers the faintest knocks on a delicate picture tube, and then photographs it with a high-speed camera.

The result—information which has enabled Shell scientists to prescribe an anti-knock mix so effective that one teaspoonful per gallon of gasoline is enough to raise the octane rating by five full points.

5. & 6. Both octane boosters in today's Super Shell have a story. One is linked with Jimmy Doolittle. The other comes from heating petroleum to 900 degrees.

Jimmy Doolittle helped pioneer the first of these high-octane ingredients for Shell aviation fuel. It is called Alkylate.

Alkylate—which took the dream of 100-octane gasoline out of the lab and put it into the sky—is now in Super Shell. It controls knocking in hot engines at high speeds far better than anything else yet available.

NOTE: Speaking of knock-control at high speeds, remember that car engines often turn faster than the engines of a DC-7.

The second octane-boosting ingredient is "cat-cracked" gasoline for power with a purr. This is petroleum that has actually been cracked under 900-degree heat and catalytic action. Its heavier molecules have been shattered into livelier, lighter ones.

The result is a super-octane ingredient that asserts its authority the moment you put your foot down.

NOTE: "Cat-cracking" refers to the use of a catalyst—the mysterious substance that can alter molecules without changing itself at all.

7. The anti-gum ingredient in Super Shell uses a chemical "policeman" to guard against gum-fouled carburetors.

Even the purest gasoline can form gum when stored. This gum clogs carburetors and fouls automatic chokes. But, with Super Shell, you needn't worry, since a special gum preventive does the trick.

It acts like a policeman controlling a mob. Regulates unstable elements to help keep them from clotting. Hence no gum problem.

8. The anti-icer in Super Shell takes care of the most mysterious stalls of all.

Super Shell's formula is adjusted as often as eight times a year to beat the weather. For example, whenever the temperature is likely to drop below forty-five degrees, an anti-icer is added.

Why add anti-icer at forty-five degrees? Because, even then, frost can form in your carburetor just as it does in your refrigerator. It can choke your engine dead. And you might never suspect what did it.

Super Shell's anti-icer tackles the problem by discouraging ice from sticking to metal parts. Result: you can forget about any carburetor icing problems.

9. TCP in Super Shell increases power, mileage and plug life.

In 1953, Shell first introduced TCP*—a revolutionary additive that neutralized certain harmful effects of combustion deposits. Today, Shell has developed a new improved TCP, called cresyl-diphenyl-phosphate.

TCP can give your car as much as 15 per cent more power and up to 17 extra miles per tankful. It can also make spark plugs last up to twice as long.

Ponder these statistics. They can have a refreshing effect on your car bills.

Test Super Shell for yourself

Try today's Super Shell next time you fill up. You'll soon feel and hear a difference in the way your engine runs.

That difference is top performance.

A BULLETIN FROM SHELL RESEARCH — where 1,997 scientists are working to make your car go better and better.

Shell's Butane Storage Cavern at Wood River, Illinois. Some 230,000 tons of rock were removed through a pipe only 42 inches wide. This tiny entrance posed quite a problem when getting a bulldozer down. Shell's solution? Cut the bulldozer up and weld it together again down below.

Over 300 Patronage Posts Up for Grabs

Postal Jobs Offer Best Hope
For Loyal Democrats in N.Y.

By JOSEPH R. COYNE
Associated Press Special Service
WASHINGTON (AP)—More than 300 patronage jobs—exclusive of this country's mission to the United Nations—are available to Democratic Party faithful in New York under the Kennedy administration.

They range from jobs paying $13.50 a day, when actually employed, to $20,000 a year for U.S. attorney in the Southern District of New York.

Kennedy Lays Groundwork
The Post Office Department will offer the best chance for jobs for loyal Democrats starved for patronage after eight years of Republican rule.

Although the Treasury Department can give 100 patronage jobs, they require special skills and education.

President Kennedy has laid the groundwork for appointment of Democrats to as many New York postmasterhips as possible.

President Eisenhower last month nominated about 70 New Yorkers for postmaster jobs. The nominations were withdrawn last week by Kennedy, however.

Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y.,

has served notice he will demand a 50-50 political break on postmaster appointments.

Could Enforce Edict
He could enforce this edict simply by refusing to back any of the nominees for New York postmaster jobs submitted to the Senate by Kennedy.

The Senate normally will not confirm any presidential appointee unless he has the approval of senators from his home state.

The highest paid patronage job in New York—$27,500 a year—is U. N. representative. Adlai Stevenson has been appointed to that post.

Jobs available to New Yorkers, however, include bank-examiners, customs-collectors, U. S. attorneys and marshalls, agricultural marketing administrator and federal mediators.

Not all jobs lacking civil service protection will be available for the party faithful. Some are already filled by Democrats, some are held by career employees and specialists, and some are subject to a fixed tenure.

The four-year term of S. Hazard Gillispie as U. S. attorney in the Southern District of New York, for example, does not expire until May 7, 1963.

Here is a partial list of jobs in

New York not protected by civil service:

U. S. attorneys at Syracuse ($17,500), Buffalo ($16,000), Brooklyn ($18,000) and Manhattan ($20,000);

U. S. marshalls in Manhattan ($14,705), Brooklyn ($12,470), Utica ($11,675) and Rochester ($11,675).

Collector of Customs in Buffalo ($13,730), New York City ($16,530), Ogdensburg ($12,210) and Rochester ($10,635).

Kingston Among Unprotected
About 120 bank-examiners and assistants at Albany, Binghamton, Buffalo, Canandaigua, Kingston, New York City, Syracuse and Watertown ($4,875 to $11,600).

More than 50 deputy U. S. marshalls in New York City, Albany, Binghamton, Utica, Brooklyn, Buffalo and Rochester ($5,355 to $8,955).

Fourteen labor mediators at Albany, Buffalo, New York City and Syracuse ($10,635 to $12,210).

Regional directors, Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, New York City, ($15,255) and assistant director ($13,730).

There are 28 deputy u.s. marshalls and 25 bank-examiners or their assistants who have status in their jobs and normally would not be replaced.

Tobacco Tax Is Off June 30, But
Not on Cigarettes

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—The two-year-old state tax on cigars, pipe tobacco and some other tobacco products will go up in smoke June 30.

Gov. Rockefeller, at whose request the tax was passed, signed a bill Tuesday repealing it.

The 15 per cent tax, at wholesale, produced $9.2 million in annual revenue. But, Rockefeller said, it had "a severe impact on many of the 145,000 small businessmen selling tobacco products at retail."

Taxes on cigarettes are not affected by the repeal. That source is expected to produce $128 million in revenue in 1961-62.

Indians War Among Selves About Conspiracy on Land

HOGANSBURG, N.Y. (AP)—Indians on the St. Regis Reservation warred among themselves today over the validity of a complaint charging discrimination and apparent conspiracy to take away their land.

One faction, headed by Mohawk Indian Wallace (Mad Bear) Anderson, filed the complaint last week with the State Commission Against Discrimination.

The other, led by members of a group calling themselves elected chiefs on the American side of the reservation in Northern New York, charged yesterday that Anderson made "false accusations" against the chiefs and major industries near the reservation.

The chiefs, the industries—General Motors, Alcoa and Reynolds

Metals—and state officials were named in Anderson's broad complaint.

The chiefs — Thomas Tarbell, Alexander Solomon and Noah Ranson — said in a statement Anderson "has absolutely no connection with our tribe and certainly is not a spokesman of the reservation."

Anderson contended the persons named "and their outside friends in the state administration call themselves (sic) 'elected chiefs,' although there is indeed nothing 'elected' about them."

The Commission Against Discrimination was attempting to determine whether it had jurisdiction in the case.

The central figure in the test case is 59-year-old Mrs. Mary Tebo, who was jailed for 30 days after ignoring an eviction notice served by the chiefs.

Mrs. Tebo, a basket-weaver, lives in a one-room house on a parcel of reservation land a development corporation had sought to purchase.

The charge of apparent conspiracy stemmed from the attempted acquisition. The discrimination allegation involved a priest who, Anderson's group said, attempted to destroy "our ancient faith."

Mrs. Tebo further alleged that her welfare payments were halted because she was born on the Canadian side of the reservation. She said a 1794 treaty permitted Indians to live on either side of the border.

The chiefs said the "false accusations" against them and the industries were considered by Indians on the reservation to "cause bad relations for the tribe."

Do You Remember by Sophie Miller

George Washington visited here in Kingston on November, 1782 according to Judge Clearwater's book (on page 213.)

On Washington's arrival in town with his staff, he was met by trustees and a large body of prominent citizens. Henry J. Sleight, president of the board, made the address of welcome, to which Washington responded with the following words: "Your polite and friendly reception of me proves your sincerity."

Gen. Washington continued: "While I view with indignation the marks of a wanton and cruel enemy, I perceive with the highest satisfaction, that the heavy calamity which befell this flourishing settlement, seems but to have added to the patriotic spirit of its inhabitants; and that a new town is fast rising out of the ashes of the old."

He thus spoke about the English having burned Kingston during the Revolutionary War. He further went on: "That you and your worthy constituents may long enjoy that freedom for which you have so nobly contended, is the sincere wish of your most obedient humble servant, George Washington."

Judge Clearwater further writes:

"The Consistory of Old Dutch Church united heartily in this greeting of the hero, and also presented him with an appropriate address, the response to which was in his own writing, and is now a cherished memento occupying a niche in the vestibule of the present church structure." The man of whom "Light Horse Harry" Lee spoke thus "first in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen."

It is also interesting to note that on that occasion, of November 1782, Gen. George Washington stopped at the Bogardus Tavern. After dining with his staff, at the house of Dirck Wynkoop on Green Street, he attended a ball that evening, given in his honor, at the Bogardus Tavern, where the ladies were introduced to him. He resumed his journey to West Point early next morning.

One of the oldest public buildings in the United States, being our Senate House Museum, was built in 1676 by Col. Wessel Ten Broeck. He came to Wiltwyck as a settler from Westphalia in 1658. It is said, that many notable people spent some time within the walls of our Senate House, one being George Washington.

It seems, during the time, the Senate House was just a private home, such prominent men as Benjamin Franklin, Governor George Clinton, General Israel Putnam, John Jay, Chancellor Livingston, General Montgomery, Aaron Burr, Washington Irving, and Presidents Van Buren and Arthur, are said to have visited the home and of course, our city.

I received a very nice note from Mrs. Alfred D. Van Buren of New Rochelle. She writes in part, that she received my column from her sister-in-law, Mrs. Osterhout. "It pleases me greatly, because Augustus H. Van Buren was my father-in-law and we have enjoyed his writing over many years. You have fascinating ability to make descriptions real. Thank you. I am mailing this to DeWitt V. Buren." I paste Mrs. Van Buren's notes in the cover of my Van Buren Book, "Ulster County Under The Dutch."

FACT

George Washington gave the shortest inaugural address when he was sworn in for his second term. He spoke only 135 words. The president who carried on longest at his inauguration was William Henry Harrison. He spoke over 8,000 words. The ceremony was held outside, and the day was nasty. Harrison, stricken with pneumonia, died a month later.

Musical Society Studies Music of Mozart, Beethoven

The Musical Society of Kingston met at the home of Mrs. George Baron on Wednesday, Feb. 8.

Mrs. LeRoy Vogt and Mrs. Harold Francis, co-chairmen, presented papers on The Viennese Period, music of Haydn, Mozart and Beethoven.

These three composers were not men of the same generation, but contemporaries who greatly influenced one another. Haydn taught both Mozart and Beethoven, the membership learned.

This era in music history is also referred to as The Classical Period, marking the culmination of the principles of monophonic style and pure independent musical form, especially in the compositions of Mozart. Beethoven expanded the classical objective form of composition with innovations of expression to formulate the beginning of the romantic or subjective element in musical composition, the reports concluded.

Selections performed by the members were:

Minuet - Symphony 5—Haydn; (piano duet) Mrs. Harold Francis and Mrs. LeRoy Vogt; soprano solo, Mrs. Edward Flick. With Verduce Clad from the Creation, Mrs. William Ryland at the piano; Sonata in B flat, Mozart — Mrs. Bertrand Bishop, piano;

Canon for three voices, Oh My Beloved, Mozart, Mrs. Flick, Mrs. Harry Legg, Mrs. Peter Palen, Miss Edna Merrihew, accompanist; Six Variations on an Original Theme, Op. 34—Beethoven, Mrs. George Baron, piano; Adelaide — Beethoven; soprano solo, Mrs. Peter Palen with Mrs. William Wood, piano; Variations on a theme of Mozart in B flat — Beethoven, Mrs. Amos Newcombe, clarinet, Mrs. Roland Tonnesen, accompanist; choral selections: The Heavens Are Telling, Beethoven; Lo, My Shepherd's Hand Divine, Haydn, Elves of the Forest, Mozart; Mrs. Willard Burke, director; Miss Edna Merrihew, accompanist; Divertimento, String Trio — Haydn, Mrs. David Smith, violin; Mrs. Amos Newcombe, viola, Mrs. Henry Cooley, cello.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Harold Francis, Mrs. Harry Legg and Mrs. Willard Burke.

Annual Meeting Here Of Women's Club

On Thursday, Feb. 9, the Women's Club of the YWCA held its annual all-day meeting. Miss Margaret Schuetz was in charge of hemming towels for the local hospitals.

At 12:30 p. m., Mrs. Empringham and her committee served a covered dish luncheon. After lunch, Arnold Sable gave an informative talk on the Kingston City Library. Mr. Sable traced the history of the library to its present plans for enlargement. He particularly stressed the benefits of the Children's Room which was supervised by Mrs. William Markle.

Class of 1946 Will Have June Reunion

The Kingston High School class of 1946 is planning its 15th reunion in June. A preliminary meeting was held recently at the home of Mrs. D. McCabe, Woodstock, for the purpose of working out details for the two-day event.

Mrs. McCabe will be general chairman with the Mmes. Watson Goodrich and Arthur Hansen, co-chairmen. John Lawson will be financial chairman with Mrs. Carol Dunn in charge of arrangements and Mrs. Lorraine Kaiser, decorations.

Members of the class of 1946 will be advised of all arrangements.

The committee requests it be advised of the whereabouts of any class member living out of town.

PARENTS NEGLECT CHILD'S TABLE MANNERS

Q: Two weeks ago, my nephew, aged nine, and his parents came to dinner at my house. I was aghast at his table manners. He kept shoveling food into his mouth as though he was afraid someone might take the plate away from him. Not only did he smear his face, but the table as well. His parents made no attempt to correct him. I could not stand it any longer so I corrected him (in a nice way of course) but my sister-in-law seemed resentful over this. When they had gone, my husband said that I was wrong to have said anything to the child and that it was not my place to correct him. I did this for the child's own good and I certainly think that, as an aunt, I was within my rights to correct him. I would like your opinion.

A: My own instinct would be to do exactly what you did, but I am afraid that a very occasional correction will do the child little good and will risk a family feud between you and his parents. Of course, if the child were visiting or staying with you without his parents, it would be your right, and indeed your duty, to correct him.

A Remarried Mother's New Name
Q: I have acquired a new problem: as a result of my mother's acquiring a new husband, my name and her's are now not the same and I don't know how to make this clear when introducing her. I say, as I used to, "Mother, this is Helen Jones" then the friend would have good reason to suppose that my mother's name and mine were the same, and call her by my name. So, how should the introduction be made?

A: Say, "My Mother" (pause) and then add, "Mrs. Newname."

A Titled Lady Living Here

Q: It is proper, when someone from another country who has a title, such as Countess, comes here to live, to continue to use this title here?

A: Unless the titled lady becomes an American citizen she has every right to continue to use her title in this country.

Vassar College Will Have Conference For Noted Women

Distinguished Women from all parts of the world will gather March 19 under the auspices of Vassar College to attend an international 5-day conference, Dr. Sarah Gibson Blanding, president of the college, announced today.

"The primary goals of the conference are to consider men's changing social, political and individual development in today's interacting world, and to explore what this means for education," Dr. Blanding stated. "To achieve this aim, genuine communication resting on complete respect for and acceptance of cultural and ideological differences is essential."

Among the thirty conference participants arriving at the Poughkeepsie campus from twenty-one countries will be Barbara Ward, British economist; Alva Myrdal, Swedish Ambassador to India; Lakshmi Menon, Indian Deputy Minister of External Affairs; Susanne Langer, American philosopher; and Vera Micheles Dean, American foreign policy specialist.

The conference, which is the major event scheduled by Vassar to mark its centennial celebration this year, will have as its theme: "Emerging Values and New Directions of Present Day Societies—Their Implications for Education." Following greetings by Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, Barbara Ward will open the conference with a paper on "How Can Our Varied Cultures Contribute to Living in an Interdependent World?"

During the following five days, the participants will consider three main topics: Economic and Social Development, Political Relationships, and the Individual and Society, and the implications for education.

Major addresses will be followed by panel discussions in which all participants will be engaged. The audience for the major addresses and for panel discussions will include members of the faculty, students, the college and local community and special guests. Working sessions will be closed to all except participants in the conference and a limited number of invited observers.

Although most of the conference participants will be women, men will be represented among the panels, the attending faculty and guests. Ralph J. Bunche, United Nations Under Secretary for Special Political Affairs, for example, will be a discussion leader.

Panelists will include Zahia Marzouk of Egypt, Aduke Moore of Nigeria, David Owen of the United Kingdom, Amrit Kaur of India, Ketty A. Stassinopoulou of Greece, Anwar Ahmed of Pakistan, Elba Gomez del Rey de Kybal of Argentina, Helga Pedersen of Denmark, Hurustiati Subandrio of Indonesia, Helen Kim of Korea, Margaret Ballinger of South Africa, Jeantine Heffing of the Netherlands, Salwa Nassar of Lebanon, Lala Spajic of Yugoslavia, Alina Szumlewicz of Brazil, Parvin Birjandi of Iran, Elisabeth Schwarzhaupt of Germany, Amalia de Castillo Ledon of Mexico.

Germaine Bree of France, now research professor at the University of Wisconsin, will be a discussion leader, as will Rosemary Park, President of Connecticut College. American participants include Leona Baumgartner, Agnes Meyer, Mabel Newcomer and Caroline K. Simon.

The international conference is one of a series of events scheduled by Vassar to mark its one hundredth year in the field of women's higher education. Among other events will be a Festival of the Mid-Nineteenth Century, February 24 through 26, which will evoke the intellectual and cultural climate at the time of the college's founding. On March 18, a luncheon in honor of President Blanding will be held at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York City.

School Board Gives Approval To Glasco Letter

The Saugerties Board of Education voted Monday night to give its approval to a letter which will be sent out by the Glasco Fire Board to parents of children attending released time classes at St. Joseph's Church, Glasco.

In the opinion of the Glasco fire commissioners at the quarters at the church used for religious education classes are overcrowded and dangerous because of fire hazard. The situation will be outlined in a letter to parents of children attending classes at the church.

The board voted four to three to give its endorsement to the letter with one of the eight members present abstaining from voting.

Prior to the vote, there had been read into the record a statement from the law division of the State Education Department which pointed out that once children leave the school to attend religious instruction under a released time program they are no longer within the jurisdiction of the board of education and the board does not assume jurisdiction until such children return to the school premises. Those who opposed endorsing the proposal of the Glasco Fire Commissioners did so, not because, as they said, they were indifferent to the potential danger, but because they felt that from a legal point of view they had no right to intervene in such a matter.

The Glasco Commissioners were led by Michael Mauro. He and other commissioners said that the Glasco church's religious education quarters seem to be overcrowded, that the children have instruction in the basement of the building which, in the opinion of the commissioners, is a dangerous location for a large number of people.

The fire commissioners expressed their appreciation to the board of education for the board's correction of faults in the Glasco and North Flatbush schools which were pointed out by the commissioners over a year ago.

Robert Herb, the representative of the Saugerties School Board for the Ulster County School Board's Association, reported a meeting in Kingston at the Governor Clinton Hotel with Assemblyman Kenneth Wilson and representatives of other Ulster County School Boards. At this meeting legislation of interest to school board members was discussed, including the Speno Bill and the formula for the distribution of State aid.

The question of additional transportation home during the rest of the current school year for high school pupils participating in athletics was declined by the board because there is no item in the budget to cover the proposed expenditure. A communication from William Straub, director of physical education and athletics was read to the board in which a request for such additional transportation was expressed.

The board approved the engaging for the coming school year of 1961-62 of a part-time psychologist, Dr. Esther Morgan, an associate professor at New Paltz State University College of Education. Dr. Morgan will examine all candidates for placement in the ungraded classes and offer consultant service to members of the teaching staff in connection with pupil problems. Dr. Morgan is a graduate of State Teachers College, West Chester, Pa., where she earned the A.B. degree; of Columbia, where she earned the Master's degree; and from the University of Florida, where she earned her Ph.D. degree. Dr. Morgan has had teaching experience on the staffs of several public schools and colleges including the State University College at Oneonta, the University of Florida, Barnard College, and New Paltz State University College.

The board rejected an invitation by the college entrance examination board for Saugerties High School to become a participating member during the coming school year.

Two new members of the elementary teaching staff were approved as follows:

Mrs. Margarita Leopitzi as teacher of a third grade class in the Mt. Marion School in place of Mrs. Nancy Kohler who left the system because of ill health, and Miss Diane Caslar in place of Miss Adrienne Taylor in a Main Street School second grade who left the local system because of marriage.

Local Dimes Drive Collects $1,567.78

John W. Davis, general chairman of the fund drive for the National Foundation in the Saugerties Area has reported a total of $1,567.78 collected to date, with some donations still to be received. Breaking the collections down as to districts, the Mothers March of Dimes drive had the following results:

Section 1, $258.16; Section 2, $151.75; Section 3, $141.45; Section 4, $191.11; Section 5, $161.35; Glasco, $159.37; Malden, $77.20; Mt. Marion $49.83; Centerville, $19.36; Veteran, $17.69; Veteran vicinity, $12.50; Saugerties Manor, $6.44; High Woods, $19.63.

Cannisters placed in the village and area stores netted $241.94, including the cake at Gether's Corner Bakery. Paul's Shell station Dimes Day increased the fund by more than $55, and advanced checks sent in so far total $60.

The fund drive last year netted $2,000 and it is hoped when all contributions are received this year's final total will meet that. Contributions may still be sent to John W. Davis.

Mitchell Resigns Rail Post, Jersey Quest Is Cited

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy says someone jointly agreeable to railroad management and labor will succeed James P. Mitchell as chairman of the commission studying railroad work rules.

Mitchell, secretary of labor in the Eisenhower administration, resigned Tuesday as chairman of the commission. He said his quest for the Republican nomination for governor of New Jersey would cut into the time needed to serve in the commission post.

In accepting the resignation, Kennedy wrote Mitchell:

"I can appreciate the factors which impel you to take this step. I, therefore, accept your resignation with genuine regret."

Mitchell headed a 21-man group made up of representatives of the railroads, five unions and the public. It was created by former President Dwight D. Eisenhower to examine contentions by management that unnecessary jobs and payments for work not done are forced by union demands. Management calls this featherbedding. Unions dispute the management view.

The study may take a year or more.

Necessary Good

Udall Says JFK Has New Policy On Public Power

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall says that where the Eisenhower administration regarded public power as "a necessary evil," the Kennedy administration regards it as "a necessary good."

At his news conference Tuesday, Udall said the new policy is a reversal of many phases of that of the Eisenhower administration. He added:

"We would not eliminate cooperation with state and private and cooperative interests, but we are not going out searching for ways to let private industry have access to major power sites and falling water at dams built with federal funds."

Asked if the new power policy planned a nationwide public system of distribution lines, Udall replied:

"I wouldn't say so now. Careful planning must be involved in this, but interconnections of a common-carrier basis as we proposed in our opinion would benefit both private and public power. We intend to have a lot of planning done in the regions affected."

Hollywood News, Views

BY BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer
TOKYO (AP) —Hi-yo, Yamamoto!

The latest sensation in the Japanese film world is the Western—a real, live horse opera with shoot-outs and chases. Only the cowpokes are Japanese.

Home of the new wave of Westerns is Nikkatsu Studio, a bustling lot amid rice paddies. It is to the Japanese film industry what Republic was in the Autry-Rogers era. Specializing in action movies, Nikkatsu released 25 Westerns last year.

Lives in Modest Home

Riding tall (5 feet 9) in the saddle during the Western craze is Akira Kobayashi. A trim, good-looking 24-year-old, he is billed as mitsu guy, or dynamite guy. He started in films five years ago, became a star in 1958 with "Forget Girls."

The star lives in a modest home in Tokyo's Tagamura district with his parents, sister, brother, white Thunderbird and Doberman Pinscher. He talked about his career over tea in his den, decorated with his awards and trophies and dolls from fans.

How did he get started with Westerns?

"When I went to the country areas," said the Tokyo-born actor, "I found the people didn't understand the imported Westerns. I thought I would give them a Japanese version."

Last year Akira made 10 Westerns, along with five others. He has little time for anything else, grinding out a film every 25 days. He is well paid, even by Hollywood standards. His estimated annual earnings: $100,000, a quarter of that from records.

Akira makes a series as an itinerant adventurer called the migrating Bird. This bird, like the cowboys in the American Westerns of yore, is never permitted to kiss the girl.

Studies U.S. Stars

"I am supposed to play a lonely man with no sweethearts," he said in translated English. "Often I rescue the beautiful girl and she has affection for me, but I must shun her."

Akira has studied the American stars for their walks, draws, etc. His own draw is lightning-fast. He prizes his gun collection—100s, since Japanese law forbids the real kind.

He makes his films partly at the studio, partly on location in northern Japan, where the desolate areas resemble the American West. Would he like to try Hollywood?

"There is no demand for me there," he said realistically. "Even if there were, I would have no desire to go there permanently. In view of his salary on the Nippon range, why should he?"

In another contest, the Mixers defeated Spada's, 53-39.

The Raiders, who had their 22-game winning string snapped at the Broadway court last week, were in good form this time around. They led, 20-10, 38-22, and 66-36, at the quarter stops. Klonowski had a dozen field goals and nine shots for his hefty total. Boice scored 11 buckets and nine foul tries. Their 64 points were more than enough to beat the losers.

After leading only 19-18 at halftime, the Mixers went wild in the third period, outscoring their opponents, 20-3, and they coasted after that. Bruce Ruffner had 23 points to lead the winners.

Ken Rumsey Stars For Winning Five With 27 Points

By ED PALLADINO
Freeman Sports Staff

Big Ken Rumsey came to the aid of his floundering teammates at New Paltz last night as Walkill remained in a first place deadlock in the UCAL race with a 55-46 triumph.

Walkill Coach Jack Higgins gave Rumsey a rest at the beginning of the fourth period with his team ahead, 40-30. Before he could rush the lanky center back into the game, New Paltz had sliced the margin to three points, 40-37, and the home crowd was in an uproar.

However, Rumsey quickly erased all doubts as to the outcome. He fed Doug Edebohlis underneath for an easy basket and then he went to work himself with seven straight foul shots. This opened the gap to 12 points, 49-37, and finished the home side for the evening.

Ken Starts It

It was Rumsey who started Walkill off on the right foot in the opening period. He had eight of the first 10 points made by the visitors as they raced to a 10-0 lead during the first six minutes of play.

The first Huguonot basket was made by Tony Fiordilino with only a minute left in the quarter. They were the only points the home side made in the stanza. The club just couldn't put the ball through the hoop.

Walkill led all the way after the good start, but with three minutes left to the half, the losers had narrowed the margin to three points, 17-14. However, a run of ten by the visitors shot them well in front once more. New Paltz never came closer than three markers the rest of the evening. Rumsey saw to that.

The senior star hit on 8 buckets and 11 free throws for 27 points in a splendid show. Edebohlis aided with 19 markers. Ken Freer had 12 for New Paltz but he didn't get much help from his teammates. Walkill had the edge in height and the team controlled the backboards.

The visitors also won the jayvee contest, 50-43.

Gary Player Still Top Money Winner

DUNEDIN, Fla. (AP) — Gary Player today remained as professional golf's top money winner, but his position proved to be rapidly eroding under Arnold Palmer's steady game.

Player, a young pro from Johannesburg, South Africa, moved his total earnings up to $14,200 this week, winning $800 in the Phoenix Open.

Palmer, of Lioniger, Pa., picked up $4,300 first money for the Open to move from fourth to second spot in the rankings with $12,800.

The No. 3 man on the list released by the Professional Golfers Association headquarters at Dunedin, was Ken Venturi of Palo Alto, Calif., with $9,400. He was tied with Bob Rosburg of Overland Park, Kan.

Bob Goolby of Crystal River, Fla., held down sixth spot with $9,200.

Biddy Managers To Meet Tonight

All Biddy League managers are requested to be at the Myron J. Michael School gym tonight, 7:30 p. m., to select an all-star team which will represent the league in the state and national tournament.

Second round play in the league will start next Wednesday night.

ROCK 'N' BOWL—LaVerne Carter seems to be combining rock 'n' roll, the Charleston and the Samba as she applies body English to an important roll. LaVerne, wife of the world's Invitational Champion Don Carter, is a kegger of merit herself.

Costello Takes Big One, 125-93

Billy Costello turned back Dave Holly, 125-93, in a showdown match last night and the railbirds are just about ready to concede Billy the 1961 city pocket billiards title.

It was a tight match until the 90-ball mark, but with a 90-90 deadlock, Holly scratched three consecutive times and forfeited 15 balls. The victory left Costello the only unbeaten player in the tournament with a 4-0 record.

Costello pocketed a high run of 26, while Holly had lesser clusters of 15 and 14 balls.

Pete Wolff, the spoiler, meets Mike Carpio in tonight's match at 7 o'clock. Wolff has yet to play Charlie Sangelina and Dave Holly.

NFA, Poughkeepsie Win in DUSO League

After being held in check for three periods, the Newburgh Free Academy cagers pulled away from Liberty in the final eight minutes of play and posted a 66-49 DUSO league victory at the Hilly City last night.

In the other circuit contest, Poughkeepsie edged Monticello, 66-59.

The Goldbacks had only a slim, 44-41, margin over the visitors after three periods but they won going away with a 22 point burst while Liberty could muster only eight.

Al Angelone, John Sileno, Jim McMillan and Richie Scott were in double figures for the winners and Gus Lander took charge of the backcourt. Herman Rosh and Joel Goldberg topped the Indians.

Newburgh has a 7-1 league mark and will play at Poughkeepsie on Friday.

The Pioneers survived a last quarter rally at Monticello after leading by a huge margin all the way. Ty Elting, Art Atkins, John Flowers and Bob Kluge paced the winners while Steve Schumacher tossed in 31 points for the Panthers, who are resting just ahead of Port Jervis near the league basement.

Many Big Names Are Missing From Tucson Open Golf Meet

By MURRAY SINCLAIR

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Some of the lustre has been taken from the $20,000 Tucson Open golf tournament, starting Thursday, by the absence of most of the game's big money winners.

Nine of the top 10 money winners of 1960 are passing up this one. Included in the missing is Arnold Palmer, the reigning glamor boy of golf and winner of this year's Phoenix and San Diego Opens.

So is Doug Sanders, one of the hottest golfers on the circuit who tied Palmer at Phoenix only to lose in Monday's playoff and who finished second to Billy Maxwell at Palm Springs two weeks ago. Maxwell isn't here either.

Neither are Ken Venturi, Mike Finsterwald, Billy Casper, Mike Souchak, Doug Ford, Bill Collins, and Gene Littler.

That leaves only Jay Hebert, the PGA champ, of last year's top 10 as a contender for the Tucson title.

But the field is not without its big names, all of whom are mentioned as threats for the top money of $2,800.

There are former champs Bob Rosburg, Jim Ferrier and Lionel Hebert, who won in Tucson a couple of years ago.

Former U. S. Open title holders Tommy Bolt and Jack Fleck are on hand.

The contenders include two men who have won the British Open, Gary Player of South Africa, and Max Faulkner, of London, England.

Colts Purchase Perry From 49ers

Six points by Jim Upper in an overtime period gave Hobart College a 71-64 basketball victory over Clarkson last night in a game that included fighting players and spectators.

The fighting lasted briefly. Order was restored and no one was reported injured. Pushing and shoving among the players during the extra period started the skirmish. Some spectators then rushed onto the floor.

Hobart and Clarkson, neither with an impressive record, were tied 61-all with five seconds to go in the regular game. Upper, who was high man for the night with 30 points, scored the first six points in the overtime. It was enough for Hobart's fourth victory in 10 games. Clarkson now has a record of 2-10.

In games involving other Upstate teams, the scores were: Siena 54, Kings 51; Albany State 63, Oneonta 56; Williams 88, RPI 46; Brockport State 97, Cortland State 68; Potsdam State 82, Utica 66; Canisius 74, Western Ontario 49; Buffalo 72, Toronto 59; and Buffalo State 92, Roberts Wesleyan 87.

Babe Ruth Story

Jamestown Salesman Recalls the Time He Played Outfield for the Yankees

By FRANK HYDE
Jamestown Post-Journal
Sports Editor

JAMESTOWN, N. Y. (AP) — Babe Ruth stories are legion and today, 12 years after his death, warm and moving episodes in his life keep popping up.

One such incident — how the Babe "shook up" the New York outfield during an exhibition game so a 12-year-old one-legged boy on crutches could "play" centerfield for the Yankees — has been told here.

The boy was Fran Marsh, now a Jamestown traveling salesman, who often relives those fleet, golden minutes when he wobbled around between the great Ruth and Bob Meusel, pounded a clubhouse by fist into his glove and dared the St. Louis Cardinals to "hit one this way."

The Marsh family was living in Florida in the middle '20s when, as Marsh puts it, he got into an argument with a freight train over the right of way and lost a leg.

"That was in the fall and the next spring my dad thought a spring exhibition game at St. Petersburg might cheer me up a little," Marsh relates.

Asked the Babe

Marsh and his party were seated near the Yankees' dugout. Fran decided to ask Ruth for an autograph as the Babe trotted in from the outfield. Hopping over to the low wire fence that separated the playing field from the stands, he finally gained Ruth's attention.

The Babe strolled over, signed then glanced down at Marsh' crutches. "Boy," he boomed. "How'd you like to play the outfield for the New York Yankees?"

Without waiting for a reply, Ruth leaned over, scooped up the bugged youngster and carried him into the dugout.

Didn't Notice the Incident

Manager Miller Huggins was occupied elsewhere at the moment and failed to notice the incident. Huggins also failed to see Ruth jogging toward the outfield a few minutes later, young Marsh perched on his shoulder and a grinning Meusel bringing up the rear carrying his crutches.

Apparently every one except Huggins was willing to go along with the gag, umpires included, for two St. Louis players grounded out before Huggins noticed the new addition.

Saugerties Board Grants Re-Zoning Of Jeffrey Site

A request for a variance in the zoning ordinance in the Village of Saugerties was granted Robert Carnright and Ernest E. Schirmer at a special meeting Tuesday night of the zoning board at the village clerk's office.

The property of Mrs. Lois Jeffrey on Market Street will be changed from residential to commercial for the specific purpose of converting the house into offices for the practice of law by Schirmer and Carnright, attorneys.

Two members of the board, Albert Giannotti and Clarence Link, were present at the meeting with the third member, Lewis Robinson, absent. Carnright presented his request saying that if the property was granted a variance it would be remodeled into a modern office building for the sole purpose of conducting a law office.

Arthur Simmons, local real estate dealer who was in attendance, spoke on behalf of the request and reported having appraised the property for the owner and setting a limited value on it. He suggested the request for the variance to commercial in view of the fact that Schirmer and Carnright desired the property for their use.

William Brinnier, a near-by resident to the property, was present to speak on behalf of the variance and to assure the board there was no objection to the change in zoning.

An executive session was held and the decision by the board given. The board in granting the variance cited the fact of no objection and that it does not violate the spirit or intent of the zoning ordinance of the Village of Saugerties. They also consider the conversion of the old house to modern offices will benefit the neighborhood and the village will benefit by the increased revenue on the property.

The board specified however that should the property cease to be used as law offices for Schirmer and Carnright it would then revert back to residential property.

Hungarians Are Held For Illegal U. S. Entry

OGDENSBURG, N. Y. (AP)—Three Hungarians are being held on federal charges of entering the United States illegally from Canada and a Canadian is charged with aiding them.

The U. S. border patrol said the four were arrested after the attempt was made in the Massena area Feb. 2.

Chief Patrol Inspector Clifford W. Oviatt identified the Hungarians, who have been living in Toronto, as Rose Toma, 21, Maria Mohacsy, 20, and Sandoz Szajko, 29.

The Canadian, Ronald MacInnes, 25, of Cornwall, was arrested Feb. 9 on a charge of aiding the three. He is being held in $2,500 bail at Canton to face action in U. S. District Court.

The two women are being held at the Franklin County jail at Malone and Szajko at the Madison County jail at Wampsville.

Oviatt said bail had not been set pending a hearing to determine whether they should be deported.

Child Health Clinic Slated Here Feb. 21

A Child Health Conference, conducted by the Ulster County Health Department will be held at the Tumor Clinic Building, 400 Broadway, Tuesday, Feb. 21 from 9 to 10:30 a. m.

The clinics are limited to infant and preschool children for the purpose of improving child health through early recognition of defects, advice regarding nutrition, instruction of parents in understanding of growth and development, handling of minor behavior difficulties and the administering of immunizations for smallpox, diphtheria, tetanus, whooping cough and polio.

These are well child clinics for the maintenance of health and prevention of disease, not for the care of the sick child. Children under the regular supervision of their own physician are not admitted unless the physician desires this service to be taken over by the Child Health Conference. In this manner, duplication of service is avoided, facilitating the work of the private physician.

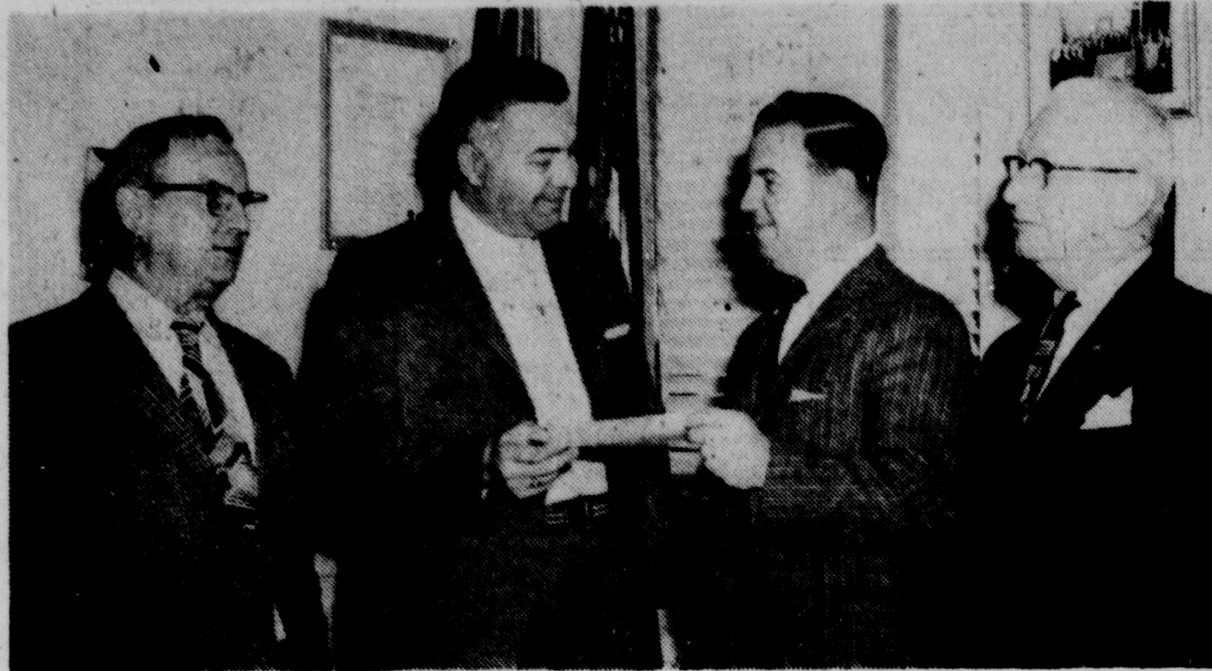

More than 1,100 newspapers and magazines are published on university and college campuses in the United States.

CITY GAINS THROUGH CABLEVISION — Hadley E. Williams, general manager of Cablevision, Inc., (second from left) presents to Mayor Edwin F. Radel a check for $2,850.10, the city's franchise percentage from 1960 Cablevision earnings, as City Treasurer Orrie R. Riehl (left) and City Clerk Raymond A. McAndrew stand by. Cablevision soon is to start a $12,000 expansion project to extend its service through Wilbur. It will start at the railroad bridge, continue west on Abeel Street to the sandbank, extend north on Wilbur Avenue to West O'Reilly Street, will include Purvis, Hamilton, Burnett, Fitch, DuFon, Davis,

Chapel and Lebert Streets. It will also extend over South Wall Street from Wilbur Avenue to and including Brook Street. If weather permits the expected customer hook-up date is March 15. A $30,000 downtown expansion program was completed in January. Service is now available to residents from McEntee Street on the north to Abeel Street on the south, and from Broadway on the east to the railroad bridge on the west. Severe weather hampered progress and hilly terrain made work hazardous for crews, Williams said. Plans are in progress to cover areas east of Broadway. Construction will start as soon as possible. # Missing Dog Returns

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont. (AP)—Tosha, a German shepherd dog given up for dead a year ago after he plummeted into the Niagara gorge, has come home.

The dog, owned by Charles Tiller, fell into the gorge when he leaped at a bird. The family gave up hope, and after a period of mourning replaced him with Big Boy.

A few days ago a bedraggled dog arrived at the Tiller home, and a veterinarian recognized a scar on his leg. Now the trials of Tosha have been pieced together.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union's attack on the United Nations operations in the Congo threatened today to touch off a new crisis in relations between Washington and Moscow at a time when they have shown hopeful improvement.

Such a crisis seems inevitable if the Soviet government forces to a showdown the threats and demands it has made as a result of the slaying of former Congolese Premier Patrice Lumumba.

Congo, U. N. Futures at Stake

The futures of both the Congo and the United Nations appeared to be at stake. The Congo now could rapidly become the arena of intensified East-West conflict; the United Nations could be virtually paralyzed as a peacemaking organization.

The turbulent situation confronts the Kennedy administration with a crucial test of its diplomatic skill and policy resources when it is still less than a month old. It injects an element of deep uncertainty into the prospects for a meeting some time later this year between President Kennedy and Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

The Soviet leader's interest in a meeting with Kennedy could serve as a restraint against his forcing Congo and U.N. demands to the point of no return. These Soviet threats may be a declaration of bargaining demands, with the Soviets hoping to accomplish somewhat less than they asked.

Count on Small Nations

Officials here were reported hopeful that the situation can be brought under control before its most dangerous potentialities develop much further. To that end, it is understood, they are counting heavily on dozens of the smaller nations, especially African states, to rally to the defense of the United Nations against Soviet demands.

The White House and State Department withheld any comment although Secretary of State Dean Rusk and other high officials de-

Red Hook Man, Second Offender, Sent to Prison

A 23-year-old Red Hook man, who was convicted by a Dutchess County trial jury of unauthorized use of a 1956 station wagon owned by Max Launhardt, Town of Red Hook, was sentenced Tuesday by County Judge John R. Schwartz to Sing Sing prison for a term of 2 1/2 to 5 years.

James Robert Fallon pleaded guilty to a second felony offender information filed by District Attorney Raymond Baratta, who noted that Fallon was convicted on Sept. 27, 1955 of third degree burglary and second degree grand larceny.

Proposes Skating Be Canceled in View of Disaster

DAVOS, Switzerland (AP)—Dr. Jacob Koch, president of the International Skating Union, today proposed cancellation of next week's world figure skating championships in Prague because of the death of the U.S. team in the Brussels plane crash.

A decision was not expected before Thursday.

Koch said "it would be extremely difficult to go through with the championships in view of the importance of the American skaters."

Belgium Crash Is Fatal to Corning Glass Scientist

CORNING, N. Y. (AP)—An executive of the Corning Glass Works, who was also president of the International Commission on Glass, was killed today in the crash of a Sabena Boeing jet airliner at Brussels, Belgium.

Howard Lillie, 58, staff research manager for research and development at Corning Glass, was en route to Brussels, where he was to conduct a meeting of the commission's executive committee in connection with the World Congress on Glass, scheduled to be held in Washington in July, 1962.

Lillie joined Corning Glass in 1927 as a research physicist and held several positions with the firm before being promoted to his present post in 1958.

A renowned scientist, he held major patents and was the author of many technical articles. He was a past president and fellow of the American Ceramics Society.

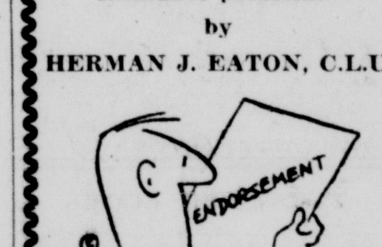

Last fall he survived a critical illness after undergoing surgery in New York City.

He was married and had one daughter, Alice, 20, a student at Lake Erie College, Painesville, Ohio, who has been studying this semester at the University of Pisa in Italy. Lillie had planned to visit his daughter after leaving Brussels.

He was serving the second year of a three-year term as president of the International Commission, which is comprised of representatives of 17 glass technology societies and institutes.
